COMMUNITY CHURCH - Sunday July 6th.

Please note that the morning service during the months of July and August will be held at ten o'clock.

On Sunday morning, July 6th the minister will conduct the service and preach on "Our Christian Heritage."

The Terrace Bay Community Church ministers to all Protestants in the district and a very hearty invitation is extended to any who may be visiting in the neighborhood to worship with the congregation.

The organist on Sunday morning will be Mr. E. Rowson.

AROUND THE TOWN NEWS

Mrs. "Bill" Olsen and daughter Jean, 6, have arrived from LongLac to join Bill for the summer at Camp 2.

Mrs. Don Brearley, Ricky and Donna left on June 20th for an extended vacation in Toronto where they plan to visit with Grace's brother and with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McCaskie.

The summer exodus of teachers has been balanced somewhat by students returning home for their vacations. On the High School Staff, Principal Dave Locking left Sunday with his family for their summer home in Kenora. Terrance Hobin, who along with Mr. Locking will return to Terrace Bay in the Fall, has left with his wife and son to visit with their parents in Sarnia, and will take a course at Assumption College, Windsor. Bernard LeMieux has returned to his home in Ottawa where he will remain to teach next year. He plans to be married in August.

PUNCH FOR SAFETY

This week Don Winters, Pulp Department punched for safety. Don punched a prize-winning slogan and selected as his prize an Auto-First Aid Kit and a pair of Polaroid Sun-glasses.

Only three persons of the ten selected knew last week's safety slogan. They were: -

John Parent,
Bob Costall,
Agostino Mazzanti.

This week's slogan "HORSEPLAY CAN END
IN TRAGEDY"
