SCHREIBERCanadian Legion Field Day

Perfect weather blessed the Canadian Legion Field Day on August 4th, with Frank Ginn as Chairman of the day. The festivities began with the parade from the Legion Club led by the Lakehead Girls' Scottish Pipe Band followed by two floats and the throng of excited children, some costumed, some not, but all waving flags and balloons. The one float entered by the Legion auxiliary and winning first prize, was in the calypso manner, bedecked with coloured streamers pseudo palm tree and potted green shrubs. The calypso dancers, Eileen Lidka, Maybelle Furlonger, Rita Swanson and Thelma Olson (unrecognizable in their dark make-up) had maracas, bongo drum, trays of vivid fruit and baskets of flowers from which they tossed flowers along their way. The second float, a dainty rose garden with trellis and archway in which Lenore Campbell was posed, won second prize. The judges for the costumes were Miss Ellen Ballar and Mrs. Fred Balork and Mrs. J.D. Bryson, and their decisions as follows: Dolls prams - Cora Spadoni; Becky Lang. INDUCTION SERVICE FOR REV. RUSSELL CROOK, B.A.

The induction service for the Rev. Russell C Crook was held on July 30th. Rev. A. Lavender, D.D., Rev. Harold Alston and Rev. W.S. Cooke, conducting the service. Following the divine service a reception was held in the Church Hall when Dr. Lavender, Andrew Grier, Rev. Cooke, Rev. Alston, Walter Harris, of the Board of Session, and Mrs Frank Fummerton, President of the W.A. all spoke. Mr. Lavender gave a brief summary of Rev. Crook's career before and after deciding upon entering the Ministry office worker, construction worker, salesman, even at one time a pick-and-shovelman, saying this varied work would give him a working understanding with people far beyond any set curriculum studied. Mr. Crook, whose home had been in Letellier, Man. first studied in Toronto, but after six months there entered United College in Winnipeg where he graduated this past June. He has spent two years as student minister in St. Charles-Headingly district, near Winnipeg, serving various Churches. With the party attending from the Lakehead were Mrs. A. Neuert, Secretary of Presbytery, and Mrs W. Lahti, both of Fort William. The community offers Rev. Crook and his petite and friendly wife a warm welcome; with the hope their years in Schreiber may be happy ones.

Among the many summer visitors in town are Mr and Mrs Jack Irvine Bob, John and Jim, of Winnipeg.

Mr and Mrs Art Gellert and Glen of Winnipeg. Mr and Mrs Tom Bourk and Garry, and Mrs. W. Bourk, of Ottawa. Mr and Mrs Warren Sutton and their family of Falconbridge, Mr and Mrs Bill Russell and their family of Espanola, Mr and Mrs Don McLeod, Billy and Roddy, of Blind River.
