PARKING METERS IN SCHREIBER

A stranger was the first to use the new parking meters. Councillor Fred Harness on making the first check-up was quite satisfied with the amounts deposited therein.

As usual, public opinion is divided; as a general rule women drivers are pleased since the area nearest to the shopping centres will now be open for them.

The men seem to feel it is a 'chancy' issue although they agree the scheme is lawful and will enrich the town coffers which is, of course, the real intent of Council.
