

SCHREIBER TOWN TOPICS

"Tommy" Bolan, who entered the employ of the CPR in March 1912 in the Bridge and Building Department, retired on pension on Sept. 3rd, with a great crowd of friends, officials, fellow workers and relations present to congratulate him.

His family included his wife, daughter Ellen, Mrs. Russell Campbell, Mr. Campbell, Lenore, Maureen and Laura, his son Pat Bolan, Mrs. Bolan, Cathie, Marjorie and Randy; among the officials were Supt. J.G. Coleman, G. McDonald, G. Birch and G. Cataford.

Tommy worked his full day and, following the rite of 'punching the clock' the family, with Mr. & Mrs. J. Campbell, went on to dinner in the Schreiber Hotel.

During the meal Mrs. Campbell presented a corsage of pink camellias to her Mother and granddaughter Lenore Campbell had the honour of presenting the family's 'fun-gift' two silver 'merit' cups to the guests of honour.

In the evening the Bolans were at home to their friends and received many lovely gifts.

Friends of the Bolans assisted in serving a delightfully presented tea, the feature of which was a cake, made especially for the occasion, decorated with a replica of a Bridge and showing the numbers 1923 - 1958.

Before leaving for North Bay, where he will attend Scollard Hall Phil. Moorey was given a surprise party by a group of friends, in Bob McParland's home. During the evening he was presented with a Parker pen and wished good luck in his new school.

On vacation from Schreiber have been-- Mrs. Tom Bryant, who is visiting in and around North Bay and other Eastern Centres;

Mr. & Mrs. Neil Ross, Miss Esther Niemi and Elmer Niemi, who drove to Ely, Minnesota; Mrs. Ben Turner, who spent the weekend in Terrace Bay with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Turner.

Miss Edna McColeman, R.N. is home visiting her mother and brother Leo Beaucage of Port Arthur, visited with old friends here last week. The following relatives of the groom, here to attend the Doig-Steen wedding, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCuaig.
