COMMUNITY CHURCH LADIES HOLD REGULAR MEETING

Mrs. Ruth Paget, President of the Ladies Auxiliary, chaired the November meeting in the Community Church Monday evening, welcoming members and friends. Miss L. Lavender accompanied the opening hymn and Mrs. Helen Brooks read the Scripture and led in prayer.

Mrs. V. Galvin read the minutes of the last meeting and correspondence to date and, in the absence of the Treasurer, Mrs. N. Coan gave the Treasurer's report. Convenors reports were presented by Ways and Means, Mrs. E. Keller thanking Mrs. L. Hopper and her committee for the excellent job done on the Fall Supper, and announcing the last project for the year, the Christmas Bazaar, to be held from 2 to 5 P.M. on November 15th. Many useful gifts and novelties will be available and, in addition to the usual bake table, something new in the form of a delicatessen table will be added this year. Program Convenor, Mrs. Coan announced that Mrs. E. Evans-Smith would have the December meeting. Sick and Visiting report was given by Mrs. Stella Brown.

Mrs. Coan requested suggestions on the usual Christmas gift exchange and it was decided children's gifts would be brought this year and sent to some children's aid. Mrs. Paget closed with the Benediction.

Mrs. Dorelle Wade, the convenor for the evening's programme was unable to be present due to a bereavement in the family, and, in her absence Dr. Lavender presented her book review, "The Altars of the East" by Lew Ayers, a highly interesting study of the religions of Japan, China, India, Pakistan and Israel. Mrs. Isobel Ferrier thanked Dr. Lavender for substituting in this emergency.

Tea was served by the November committee.
