Town Topics

COMMUNITY CHURCH BAZAAR ON SATURDAY NOV. 15th

On Saturday, November 15th, the Hall of the Community Church in Terrace Bay will be transformed into a gay Christmas setting with a Cookie Tree, Kiddies Christmas Tree, delectable Home Baked Goods, something new a Delicatessen Table, colourful aprons, knitting and novelties.

The tea tables will offer a chance for relaxation and a bit of whimsy (tea-cup reading). Those who have ordered Christmas cakes may pick them up that day.

For the benefit of those whose working hours do not coincide with the hours at which the Bazaar will be presented (2-5 Saturday afternoon) the Committee have decided to hold a preview on Friday evening. Please do not ask to have items put away or held on Friday night, just arrange for someone to attend the Bazaar and pick up the goods of your choice.

BOY SCOUTS START ANNUAL XMAS TOY REPAIR SHOP

Once again the local boy scouts will be operating their annual Xmas toy repair shop. This consists of canvassing the town for old or broken toys, repairing them and turning them over to the Children's Aid Society at the Lakehead for distribution of underprivileged children in this area who would otherwise have a bleak and cheerless Christmas.

If you have any unwanted toys please contact S. Ballantine Ph. 3528, B. Peterkin 3749, G. Kelly or any Boy Scout.
