A spiritual bouquet was planned for Sister Mary Rosary. Mr. Wayne Wilson was named programme convenor for the January meeting. Mrs. A. Verdoni's room won the attendance prize.

Mrs. Bill Cook was appointed to convene the December lunch committee and members were told the annual gift exchange will take place at this meeting, on December 15th. Adrian Belanger was the winner of the 50-50 draw.

Mr. Ram Rao was the guest speaker, describing education systems and standards in India. Respect for their elders, which is an integral part of an Indian Child's education, began in the home and is stressed everywhere. This esteem, he felt, brings out the best in a child's character it seems since the teen-age problems common in the western world do not develop in Indian.

Following the meeting cards were played and lunch served.

Mr. & Mrs. D. Rosie of Fort William were the guests of Mrs. Baden Plummer last week.

A. B. Jim Johnson, R.C.N. has returned to duty on H.M.C.S. Skeena, after visiting his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Len Johnson.

Sister St. Henry has returned to Edmonton after attending her father's funeral in Schreiber, Mr. Henry R. Greengrass.

The Canadian Legion Scholarship mentioned in an earlier report was not $1,000 but $100, annually to most deserving student in Schreiber High School.

The funeral of the late Henry Richard Greengrass, whose death after a long illness occurred on November 14th, was conducted on November 17th in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber.

Mr. Greengrass' only son, Rev. Alex Greengrass of Marathon, was the officiating clergyman, assisted by Rt. Rev. A. J. Hogan of Fort William, Rev. E. A. Gallagher of Terrace Bay and Rev. Father Gatien, acting pastor of Holy Angels' Church. Rt. Rev. Hogan gave the eulogy.

The acting pall bearers were J. McGrath, G. Willoughby, E. Holland, E. McCouan, Pat Bolan, A. Belanger. Honourary pall bearers were J. Shanahan, E. Morrill, A. Gauthier, B. Fournier, G. Duncan and T. Colan.

Interment was in Schreiber Cemetery.

Mr. Greengrass, born on October 29th, 1886, in Norfolk, England, was raised in Aberdeen, Scotland, coming to Canada in 1911. After spending a year in Fort William he entered the service of the CPR in Schreiber, where he remained until his death. He retired in October 1951.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Rev. A. Greengrass of Marathon, two daughters, Sister St. Henry of Edmonton and Connie, Mrs. G. Gauthier of Schreiber, five grandchildren and a brother Arthur Greengrass of Kirkcaldy, Scotland.

Mr. Greengrass was devoted to his home and family and he was an enthusiastic philatelist.

THREE RETIRED B. of L.E. MEMBERS HONOURED

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Division 562, gave a dinner in the Schreiber Hotel on November 18th in honour of three retired brothers - R. T. McBride, Henry Scott and E. J. Morrill. Unfortunately, only the latter was able to attend.

J. E. Gagnon, A. McColeman and G. A. Scott were the committee in charge, with Don Rosie as Master of Ceremonies.

Over fifty engineers and their wives attended, also Supt. Everitt and Mrs. Everitt Chief Despatcher H. B. Austen and Mrs. Austen, Mr. & Mrs. A. Mellis, Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Birch. Miss Maureen Morrill was with her father and Mrs. Rosie accompanied her husband.

Mr. Rosie said he felt it was a great honour to act as chairman on such an occasion, but, since the experience he had in railroading was learned from the older men present and he counted them as friends, along with the younger men whom he represented, he could not feel nervous.

Mr. Everitt presented the Brotherhood's gift, a handsome inscribed wallet, to Mr. Morrill. Mr. Everitt whose knowledge of railroading is a practical one, said he was happy to work with the Schreiber men who he had known before.

Geo. Birch, road foreman, spoke briefly, paying tribute to the pensioners present.

Following the dinner a social evening was enjoyed.
