Town Topics

COMMUNITY CHURCH LADIES' AUXILIARY MEET

President Mrs. Ruth Paget welcomed the ladies to the Auxiliary meeting Monday evening, December 1st, in the Terrace Bay Community Church for the Annual Christmas meeting. Several business items were dealt with and reports read.

Gifts were brought to the meeting in place of the regular member's gift exchange at Christmas and will be sent to a Sudbury Church for distribution to needy children.

The Nominating Committee for the 1959 elections will be Mrs. Norine Coe, Mrs. Kay Graham and Mrs. Dorelle Wade. Mrs. Paget then closed with the Benediction.

Mrs. Elicia Evans-Smith, chairman of the evening's special programme introduced Mrs. Norma Coan and her story entitled "Christmas Around the World." The Terrace Bay Ladies Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss, made their welcome annual appearance to add to the Christmas entertainment.

Tea and luncheon was served from individual tea tables all festive with Christmas motifs.

DRAW FOR HI-FI RECORD PLAYER

The draw for the portable Hi-Fi Record Player sponsored by the Nurses of Terrace Bay took place at the Beaver-Superior hockey game; Sunday afternoon in the Terrace Bay Arena. Mr. Walter Gebski of Terrace Bay was the winner.

The nurses wish to thank the people of Terrace Bay for their very generous support in making this draw such a success. The proceeds will be turned over to the Mental Health Association as part of the money raising project sponsored by the North Shore Nurses Group.

Valerie Larson celebrated her third birthday on Sunday with ten little children in attendance.
