The members of the Terrace Bay Hospital Board and the Hospital Staff wish to express their heartfelt appreciation to the Lions Club of Schreiber for the Oxygen Tent which they most generously donated. This tent is one of the newest and best models and has already been used several times to good advantage. It will simplify any necessary oxygen therapy and the patient will receive benefit of oxygen in complete comfort.

We sincerely thank the good members of the Schreiber Lions Club.

(Signed) Mrs. M. Buck,
Superintendent.

Christmas and the family hearth are synonymous - so once more teachers of Terrace Bay are hurrying off to visit parents and relatives and students from near and far are arriving for the holiday season.

Miss Rose Leschuck will spend her holidays in Fort William with her parents; Mrs. Jean Woods will travel to Berkeley, Ontario to her home; Miss M. Baker will visit at her home in Fort William and also holiday in Arizona; Miss Camila Collins is spending the holiday at her home in Ottawa; and Miss Alvera Wood will go home to Fort Frances.

Miss Doreen Brady will visit her family in Ottawa; Miss Pat McCann plans to visit her parents in Hornepayne and Miss Cathy Smith goes to Toronto to visit her parents.

Our married teachers, Mr. Ray Kenney, Mr.
