

VALERIA STORTINI AND ARNOLD O'KEEFE MARRY

On February 14th in Holy Agels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber Father G.G.Epoch solemnized the marriage of Valeria Anna, daughter of Mr. G.Stortini and the late Mrs. Anna Stortini, and Arnold O'Keefe of Schreiber son of Mr. and Mrs. D.O'Keefe of Blake township, Fort William.

The Altar was adorned with white mums and small mums knotted in white tulle marked the guest pews.

Miss Carol Lalonde was the organist and during the ceremony Giovanni Cebrario sang two selections. The Altar boys were John Stortini and Billy Scott, brother and nephew of the bride. Ushers were Arnold Stortini and George Walker with Jack Rea, cousin of the groom as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in chantilly lace and nylon tulle, effectively combined. The lace formed the bodice, where the low waistline was outlined in cording and extended in nine deep scallops in the skirt, each point marked by lovers' knot of lace centred with pearls and sequins. The sleeves pointed over the wrists and the boat neckline was ornamented with lace scallops and embroidery. Her veil was held by a coronet of pearls and sequins and she wore corde slippers. Her white prayer book held two white gardenias with a shower of red rosebuds knotted in satin ribbon. She wore the groom's gift, a gold cross and chain.

Mrs.Arnold Stortini attended the bride, choosing a waltz length frock of acqua organdy over taffeta, with scoop neckline, short sleeves and with princess lines. She wore a feather bandeau in matching colour and carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony the wedding breakfast was given in the Schreiber Hotel when Grace was said by Father Epoch. The toast to the bride was proposed by her brother-in-law Geo.Scott. The bride's table was centred with the three tier wedding cake, set in tulle and flanked by white tapers. Mrs. J.Corbett was dining room hostess and the servitors were Mrs. G.Godin and Mrs. P. Doig.

During the afternoon a reception was given in the home of the bride's father when Mrs. Stortini received in blue printed silk with black accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother, who assisted in receiving chose brown printed silk with accessories in flame, her corsage of yellow roses.

Pouring at the rose centred tea table were Mrs. P.Kidder, Mrs. F.Eikmeier, Mrs. W.R.Weaver and Mrs. R.Ellicotte. Servitors Were Miss Gail Birch, Mrs. H.Costall and Mrs.R.Cook. Mrs. W.Cook, Mrs. G.A.Scott and Mrs. A.Lemieux replenished. W.R.Weaver was in charge of the punch bowl, Sheila Weaver attended the gift room and Anna Fummerton circulated the guest book.
