The visit of the Rev. Murray Thompson to Terrace Bay which was scheduled for Friday, March 6th, has been postponed owing to the illness of Mrs. Thompson. It is hoped that we may have a visit from Mr. Thompson in the Fall.

TOWN TOPICS

Mr. F. O. Soughton is confined to McKellar Hospital, Fort William. Mrs. Soughton visited with him over the weekend.

Mr. & Mrs. H. Lohr spent Friday at the Lakehead where they attended their daughter Donna's pinning ceremony.

Enroute there they encountered an experience that, though it is envied by no one, we can still feel pleased that they were on hand to render assistance.

What people will do under stress is pointed out by Bert who related that one party who arrived on the scene made haste to offer the lone survivor a cigarette -- without thought of the gasoline which permeated the surrounding area. We're glad Bert was on hand.

Mrs. M. Dashkewytch chaired the regular meeting February 23rd, of the Local Assoc., to Guides and Brownies held in the Recreation Centre's meeting room, and opened with the Guide Prayer.

Mrs. Lois Downey, Secretary, read the financial report from the Polly Lake Camp.
Mothers of all Guides and Brownies had been contacted and Mrs. Dashkewytch welcomed the newcomers to the meeting. A discussion was held on the formation of a Badge committee.
The Easter Candy Sale will be held on March 24th in the Hudson's Bay Store and a raffle on a ham will be drawn at that time.

We express sympathy to Mrs. June Smith who lost her Father, Mr. V.O. Hinton of Pt.
Arthur on Saturday, Feb. 21st.

SAINTS hold their Sunday School each Sunday morning at 10.30 A.M. in the home of the Y.M.C.A. Secretary.

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League will be held Sunday evening, March 8th at 8 o'clock in St. Martin's Church hall. There will be a door prize and penny auction. All members are cordially invited to attend.

This is also Communion Sunday for members of the C.W.L.

Mrs. Lorraine Desaulnier held a party last Wednesday afternoon to celebrate the fifth birthday of her son Brian and the fourth birthday of her son JoJo. Twenty-three boys and girls were invited and played games before they had their party lunch and favours. Mrs. D. Godfrey, aunt of the boys, assisted with the party.

Mrs. Phyl Turner entertained on February 25th for her daughter, Phyllis Ann's fifth birthday. Twelve children enjoyed an afternoon of games and play before they sat down to birthday cake and lunch. Mrs. Vivian Hanna and Mrs. Helen Hales assisted the hostess.

Diane Beddard was home from Pt. Arthur for the weekend with her parents, Mr. & Mrs.
Jim Beddard.

GIRL GUIDES VISIT IRELAND

A Girl Guide Challenge reads that they should 'choose another country than your own which your Patrol would like to visit'.
Guide Captain Middaugh welcomed the special guests and parents who visited the Terrace Bay Guide Company on Wednesday last to watch the Company as they met their first challenge of the year. Successfully passing one challenge from Canada's Chief Guide, Mrs.
