

SCHREIBER KINSMEN PLAN BINGO

The Kinsmen held their regular dinner meeting in the Schreiber Hotel on March 2nd with Bob Turner residing. Minutes and correspondence were read by Alex Tweedy and Treasurer's report given by Don Campbell.

Following routine reports plans were made to hold a bingo in the Town Hall on March 23rd.

NEXT MEETING FOR SCHREIBER C.W.L. APRIL 12

Mrs. J. Campbell presided over the recent meeting of the Catholic Women's League. Included in the correspondence read was a letter from Mrs. Helmk of Terrace Bay, giving information on organizing a Girl Guide and Brownie Group.

Mrs. B. Paradis, Mrs. H. Duggan and Mrs. W. Wilson were named nominating committee for the elections to be held at the regular April Meeting. Members were urged to return their nominating forms promptly. The April meeting falling during the Easter Holidays, it was agreed to postpone it by one week, making instead on April 12th.

STRYCHNINE RESPONSIBLE FOR DOG DEATHS

It has been definitely established that the dog sent to Toronto for autopsy died of strychnine poison and, since the symptoms in the other deaths were the same, it is assumed all were victims of a cruel poisoner.

Mrs. Jim Singleton marked her daughter Jane's eighth birthday by a party for the following small friends:- Brenda Dimmery, Louise Halonen, Karen Lidkea, Judy and Liorma Walker, Jeanie McCuaig, Kathie and Norma McLellan, Nancy Spillane, Eva Mary McCouan, Melanie Ross and cousins Janet, Judy and Joyce Richardson and Diane Singleton. Mrs. Spillane assisted the hostess.

The dining room was gaily decked with pink streamers, balloons and small favours, the birthday cake centering the table for the hot chicken supper.

David Drake is a patient in McKellar Hospital, after suffering a head injury in a fall at play in his home.

MRS. G. McDONALD HONOURED ON DEPARTURE

Mrs. G. McDonald, who left recently to make her home in Sudbury, was honoured at several parties arranged by her friends, receiving also gifts from the Mission Band and Evening Auxiliary of the United Church. Her bridge club met in the home of Mrs. E.J. Sheehan to present her with a gift of coalport china. Friends and neighbours gathered in the home of Mrs. V. Evrett, when she and Mrs. H.V. Austen were co-hostesses for a social evening in Mrs. McDonald's honour, presenting her with a Moorcroft china covered bonbon dish. At the last occasion were Mesdames J.D. Bryson, S. Pudney, J.B. Ridsdale, J.D. Bryson, S. Barluk, P. Hrynyk, E.J. Sheehan, R. Gander and H.P. Bourguignon.

CLARENCE LYTTLE ENDS 42-YEAR CAREER

Engineer Clarence Lyttle ended a career

of forty-two year's railroading when he stepped down from the cab of Number Eight in Schreiber on March 5th. His wife had made the last trip from Fort William on the train and many old and young friends were waiting on the Schreiber platform to greet him, with Company officials, the latter including locomotive foreman Alex Mellis, district master mechanic Bob Grinton (Chapleau), Asst. Supt. J. Lesley.

Among the old friends were Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBride, Mr. and Mrs. Moise Gratton, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Welbourne, Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. L.R. McCuaig, J. O. Milks, Geo. Duncan, W.W. Wilks, with Don Rosie, local chairman of the B. of L.E., Miss Dolores McBride of the office staff, fireman J. Rumery, Bruce Simon, Martyn Ryan, "Casey" McBride and Amby McBride and retired engineer Percy Johnson of Beachburg.

Mr. Lyttle came to Schreiber in 1917 from Beachburg, Ont. to sign on the firemen's list, making his first trip with the late George Drake, and his first running trip, when he set up in 1941, with the late Ellard White. The crew on his last run were Cond. Jack O'Brien, fireman E. Payette and trainmen Mike Murphy and C. Bangs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyttle moved from Schreiber to Fort William in 1955 but much visiting back and forth has kept their friendships here alive. They were entertained at luncheon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Sheehan and at dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Welbourne, with friends dropping in at both places during the day to offer good wishes.

Many messages, both serious and amusing were received, from the station staffs in Ft. William, Pt. Arthur and Schreiber, various fellow employees and many friends.

SCHREIBER HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT HOCKEY CHAMPS

Schreiber captured the trophy in the district high school hockey series in a game played between the local team and Geraldton on Schreiber ice. The score of 9-5 was not a true indication of the fine hockey played, with Geraldton fighting all the way. The visitors played C. Westover, M. Sinclair, N. Nurse, R. Graham, J. Gunsen, A. Friskie, Leo Stenn, J. Smith, E. Tessier, M. Kerr, Bruce Sakamoto and E. Bogaris, with Ralph Phipps of the school staff as their coach.

Schreiber played V. Tookenay, T. Speziale, P. Inshaw, J. Cosgrove, G. Speziale, K. Sitch, M. Tookenay, J. Duggan, R. Potvin, B. Harper, P. Huminicki, B. Kinney, M. McParland, H. Shack and M. Boon with Bill Davies as coach. Each team had their pretty cheerleaders. Accompanying the Geraldton team were Mr. and Mrs. A. Friskie and R. Gordon. The day ended with a party in Schreiber school.

HOME & SCHOOL INSTALLATION ON MARCH 16th

Installation of Officers for the Home and School Association of the High School will take place on March 16th at 8 o'clock in the Schreiber High School. Mrs. L. Thingstad of Fort William will conduct the installation.

THE LADIES BOWLING LEAGUE can boast of 63 over-200 games in February and Elsie Ross and Kay Furyk each made over the 300. Team