 the children had their party lunch and took a basket of favours home with them.

Doris and Bob Biesenthal arrived home Sunday from a wonderful three weeks when they flew to Phoenix, Arizona to visit Doris' parents, Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Hansford. They also spent a weekend sightseeing at the Grand Canyon and a trip to Tuscon, while there.

Mrs. M. Dashkewytch opened the regular meeting of the Local Assoc., to Guides and Brownies by reading of the Guide Prayer on Monday evening. Minutes and correspondence were read by the Secretary, Mrs. L. Downey and Mrs. P. Gombola gave the Treasurer's report.

Reports were heard from various convenors, Mrs. Bea Williams announcing the Brownie Banquet would be on May 9th and, though tentative plans had been made for the Guide Banquet, no date had as yet been set.

An invitation had been extended to Mrs. Earle, District Commissioner to visit in Terrace Bay. Mrs. Earle replied indicating her wish to visit after her trip to Toronto to attend the Conference in April. Many suggestions on time and types of gatherings were discussed. A cheque will be sent to Mrs. Earle to help defray conference expenses.

Mrs. Dashkewytch was happy to announce the receipt of a cheque from the local Kiwanis Club for Sandra Phillips toward her expenses in travelling to Toronto to officially receive her Gold Cord. The local association unanimously voted a further sum be added to this amount to Sandra as their first Gold Cord Guide. Mrs. Dashkewytch also remarked on the splendid handling of the Gold Cord Ceremony held March 11th.

Sandra Phillips will carry on in the role of Acting Captain of the 1st Terrace Bay Guide Company for the present, due to the resignation of Mrs. M. Middaugh, Guide Captain. Sandra will be assisted by Mrs. L. Downey and Mrs. J. West.

The Chairman reminded the Guiders present that the L.A. would pay babysitting charges necessary for Guiders to attend meetings. Several warrants have been received recently and other new Guiders commencing duties were: Mrs. B. Larson, Mrs. H. Farrell, Mrs. P. Kelly, Mrs. J. West and Mrs. L. Downey. It was motioned to provide uniforms for Guiders after two months attendance and the achievement of their Tenderfoot.

Mrs. S. Mikus has agreed to assist in the training of new leaders and books will be ordered to assist in this training. Mrs. H. Farrell will contact all interested in attending these sessions.

A motion was passed to confine the Candy Sale and the soliciting of candy for same to the Mothers of Guides and Brownies next year.

The Chairman suggested for consideration that only executive meetings be held next year with just one open meeting in January, with a list of all Mothers kept for assistance in social functions. Also the possibility of a training coordinator.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. M. Mantey expressed her pleasure at having been present at this meeting when so much ground had been covered with so much that was worthwhile to a Quider.
