

SOFTBALL

Teams have been selected and managers have copies of the teams, schedules and rules. These will be distributed among the players. Opening game is slated for Monday, May 25th, when Salary plays at Shift 1. Registration fees of $1.00 per player must be in the hands of F. Whitfield by June 10th, so managers are urged to make collections in the very near future.

ROLLER SKATING

A record crowd of skaters opened the season last Thursday at the Terrace Bay Arena. One hundred and fifty-two people were out to enjoy a fine evening's entertainment, featuring new skates and new music.

There's skating again this Thursday, so let's have an even bigger crowd out. We still have plenty more skates.

MARATHON GOLF

The Improvement District of Marathon has made a special offer to Terrace Bay residents desiring to play golf on the Marathon Golf Course. For full information contact A. Pattison at Local 241 in the Mill or Phone 3562.
