A.W. 'Al' HARRISON TRANSFERRED TO NIAGARA FALLS KIMBERLY-CLARK MILL.

The Kimberly-Clark management at Terrace Bay have announced that Al Harrison, Maintenance Engineer here has been transferred to the Engineering Department at the Niagara Falls, Ontario mill, effective July 15th, 1959.

Al is a graduate of the University of Toronto. He was very active in Kiwanis work in Terrace Bay, taking part also in many sport activities including hockey, baseball, basketball and curling. He coached local basketball teams. He is also an ardent fisherman. One of his many fishing trips was to the Albany River and we believe he will be up there again this year.

His team mates on the Salary softball team had a "do" for him and on Thursday, July 9th, Al's co-workers at the Mill held a stag and presented him with luggage.

Al was still single when he left Terrace Bay. He lived at the Hotel Terrace and he and his room, as a meeting place for assorted curlers, hockey, softball and basketball players, etc., will be sorely missed.

Al's many friends wish for him a successful future in his new assignment.

T.O. "Tom" Smith of Terrace Bay's Engineering Department will replace Al as the Maintenance Engineer at the Terrace Bay Mill. Tom is also a graduate of the University of Toronto and also a hard working member of the local Kiwanis Club.

TENDERS

Tenders are requested for decorating the main hallway, office and lobby of St. Martin's Separate School. Details and specifications will be provided by Mr. J. Marcella. Signed tenders should be forwarded to the under-

M.D. Campbell,
Secretary-Treasurer

CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT

Cy Brassard ran away with first place in the local cribbage tournament, losing only two games over the eight week schedule. Second place is still in doubt as Gus Drexler and Hugh Hamilton are to play off for that position.

Wind-up party for the crib players will take place this Friday night at 7.30 in the Curling Lounge of the Recreation Centre. Only members will be admitted.

MINOR BASEBALLIndians Win American League

Don Farrow's Indians swept the American League playoffs in local Minor League competition, with four straight playoff wins. Both the Yankees, coached by Don Fedun, and the Tigers, coached by Gary Newell, provided top-notch competition, but the Indians, playing heads-up ball, were not to be denied.

Top performers in the playoffs were Terry Black, Ricky Dorman, Don Gerow and Ken Anderson for the Indians; Jim Mikus, Brian Pineault, David Fedun and Albert Cadieux for the Yankees; Chuck Coan, Mickey Valiquette, Keith Koski and Ken Kennedy for the Tigers.

All-star teams from this group will be chosen shortly to represent Terrace Bay against outside competition.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Giants and Pirates start a best 2-of-3 finals Wednesday at 10 A.M. for the National League Championship. Balance of the games will be played on Thursday and Friday at the same times. (Cont'd Page 4)
