

COTTON-WILLOUGHBY (Cont'd from Page 3) skirt and wide bertha collar delicately tucked and edged with lace. She wore a white feathered hat and white accessories and a corsage of feathered carnations in a deep rose.

Attending the bride was Miss Judith McCausland of Terrace Bay who chose a street length dress in pink nylon, the blouse smartly embroidered at back in flowered detail set with rhinestones. She wore a pink feathered hat and accessories and a corsage of pink feathered carnations.

Groomsman was Mr. Glenn Willoughby, brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H.V. Gibson in Fort William where the Groom's Mother received in a sand coloured suit with all-white accessories and wearing a corsage of red roses. Assisting Mrs. Gibson at the reception were Misses Susan McCausland, Joyce Holmes and Sheila Gibson.

For travelling the bride chose a Shirt-waist dress of pink Arnel collarless and with three-quarter sleeves and rows of tiny tucks ornamenting the fitted bodice. Her accessories were of white and she wore a rose corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby will leave in September to reside in North Bay.

A bridal party was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ward with hostess and host Judy McCausland and Marvin Steen. During the evening's entertainment Gayle and Dale Willoughby were the recipients of many lovely gifts from those attending.

COLLETTE-CHURNEY VOWS TAKEN IN ST. MARTINS

Marie Therese Aldea Collette, daughter of Mr. L. Collette of Newcastle, N.B., exchanged marriage vows with George Michael Churney in a double ring ceremony performed by Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher on Saturday, August 8th at 9:30 A.M. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Churney of Terrace Bay.

Bouquets of multi-coloured gladioli formed the wedding setting and bows of white tulle caught with sprigs of Sweet William marked the guest pews to which ushers Vincent and Dan Kenney led the guests. Supporting the groom as best man was Mr. Steve Kolesar. The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Churney, sister of the groom and Mrs. E. Pineault presided at the organ.

Gowned in a floor length model of brocaded silk net on princess lines the bride was on the arm of Mr. Henry Sodesky who gave her in marriage. Her shoulder length veil was caught by a tiny pillbox hat and she carried a cascade of red roses.

Miss Churney chose a gown in midnight blue silk organza in princess style and she wore a picture hat of matching colour and carried a cascade of white and yellow baby mums.

A wedding luncheon was held at Hotel Terrace and in the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the Groom's parents, Pine Crescent with the groom's Mother receiving in a suit of crystalized organza with white accessories and wearing a corsage of tea roses. The toast to the bride was given by Mr. Henry Sodesky. The bride's table was covered in white linen and held the three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom.
