to attend their next meeting to which he complied. Mr. Jack Brooks will be approached to complete the Library Board.

Hydro accounts were scrutinized. Mr. Paget was selected to replace Mr. Wellings during his vacation and be in charge of Townsite roads. Following a letter from Mr. W. E. Cavanaugh, perusal and agreement was made to his proposed straightening out of Cartier Ave. to eliminate the rise and turn. The much discussed Lakeview Drive may be improved by a repeated rise and leveling. Hacquoils will begin paving within the town this week and have agreed to several alterations prior to paving.

Councillor Eouchard reported on the last pollution test for the season of the swimming pool submitted by Mr. Wade, also contacts made with Mr. Paget on the T.E. Clinic to arrive here next month.

Councillor Heenan stated Fire Chief Maitland is most desirous of sending one of his Firemen to the Fireman's Instruction Course to be held at Gravenhurst. Council was agreeable to the request and enquiries will be made as to enrolment and replacement of one fireman.

Councillor Duncan reported on squatters in the vicinity and a clean-up of this property, also his findings in connection with establishing a dog-pound and dog-catcher in town.
