TEES - NICOL MARRIAGE

On September 5th at 10 a.m. the marriage of Judith Elaine, of Schreiber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Tees of Montreal to Maurice Edwin Nicol, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Nicol of Jackfish was solemnized in St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church. Very Rev. Dean A.

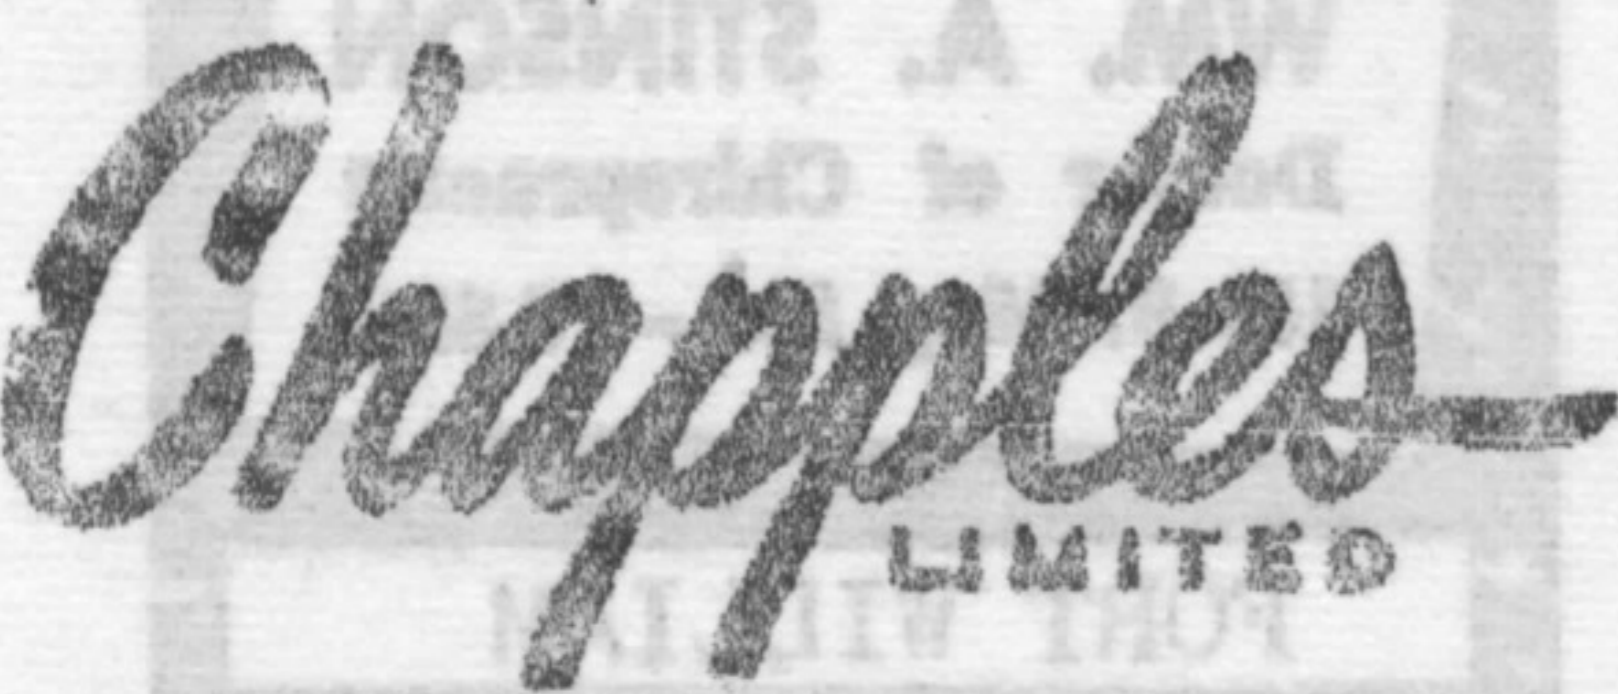

Gallagher officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Music was provided by Miss Carol Lalonde and the guest soloist was Giovanni Cebrario who sang "ave Maria" and "On This Day O Blessed Mother". Lyle Nicol and Greg Boudreau served as Altar boys.

Escorted to the altar by her Father, the bride wore a floor-length model of white Chantilly lace and tulle. A lace panel in front, the length of the skirt, highlighted the bouffant skirt, the fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline patterned in pearls and sequins and the heath sleeves ended in lily-points. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a jewelled crown of pearl and sequins, and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty Roses, tiny rosebuds caught in it's streamers.

Bridal attendants were Misses Sally Stewart as Maid of Honour and Lorraine Nesbitt as bridesmaid, both of Schreiber. They wore identical waltz length gowns of pale blue nylon chiffon.

Groomsman was Mr. Gerald Nicol brother of the groom, and ushers were Messrs. W. Vezina Jr., and Ronald Marquis.

Following the marriage ceremony a wedding breakfast for the wedding party and family was held at Hotel Terrace when Mr. Jack MacIsaac of Fort William proposed the toast to the bride. A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Stachiw, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. The Bride's Mother received in a two-piece gown of beige lace (continued page
