RUBY REBEKAH LODGE MEETS

Ruby Rebekah Lodge No.279 held their regular meeting on Monday night with Mrs. Winnie Clemens N.G. and Mrs. Mary Legault, V.G. presiding. Fifty members attended the meeting during which routing business was conducted and election of officers took place. The newly-elected officers are: Noble Grand, Mrs. Mary Legault, Vice-Grand Aleatha Morris, Rec. Secretary, Anna Laine, P.N.G., Financial Secretary Mrs. Helen Wallace, P.D.D.P., Treasurer, Bernice Whent and Mildred Smith as Trustee.

The C.P.T. report was given by Mrs. Grover and the semi-annual property committee report was given by Mrs. F. Whent. A grateful user of Lodge hospital equipment made a donation to the Lodge which was passed on to the C.P.T. Fund.

Installation of officers will be held on October 7th when Mrs. Margaret Rose, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario will be present. The installation supper will be held in the United Church Hall with Mrs. H. McBride as convenor.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sully on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

October 7th will be a particularly worthwhile meeting as the 34th birthday of Ruby Rebekah Lodge will also be celebrated.

The C.P.T. Draw following the meeting made Alex Tweedy owner of the set of dishes--Mrs. McRury of Ft. William won the Deep-Fryer and the Camera was won by Bernice Whent. The Winner's Draw (a new venture) was won by Mrs Pearl Hiller and Mrs. A. Farrow. A Penny Auction and refreshments concluded the evening.
