

EVERYBODY INVITED

TO AN ENTERTAINING EVENING

SEE and HEAR

"Sounds Of Our Times"

A DEMONSTRATION ON THE WONDERS OF STEREOPHONIC SOUND

View a Colourful Movie

THE PLACE - TERRACE BAY HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

THE TIME - THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15TH AT 8:00 P.M.

REFRESHMENTS

ADMISSION FREE

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA

COMMUNITY CHURCH LADIES TO SELL XMAS CAKES

The October meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary was presided over by the Vice-President, Mrs. Isabel Marsh in the Community Church. Accompanying the opening hymn was Mrs. Clara Gould at the piano and Mrs. Elicia Evans-Smith read the Scriptures and led in Prayer.

Secretary Mrs. Vigrinia Galvin read the minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Ivy Pattison presented the Treasurer's report.

Reports of Convenors were heard as follows: Property - Mrs. E. Haughn, Sick & Visiting - Mrs. T. Young, Membership - Mrs. E. Maitland, Publicity - Mrs. G. Cotton, Refreshments - Mrs. R. Smith and Program Convenor Mrs. Gertrude Soughton announced the next meeting would be C.G.I.T. night with the girls of the group guests of the evening and Mrs. Whiteside would demonstrate awkward bandages.

It was announced that Mrs. Paget and Mrs. McCausland had agreed once more to make Xmas cakes for the Bazaar. Orders must, however, be in prior to October 31st and could be placed by phoning either of these ladies.

It was decided to furnish another pair of drapes for the Sunday School room. The meeting closed with the Benediction.

Mrs. Soughton introduced from her yearly theme "Women of the Bible", the story of Ruth and a beautiful portrayal of the story was given in a film shown by Mr. Ken Ward.

Mrs. M. Middaugh gave a clever demonstration of gathering of wild plants and weeds for winter bouquets as well as many useful tips on lengthening the life of cut flowers. Tea and cakes were served by Mrs. Ruby Smith and her committee.

The afternoon branch of the Auxiliary also met on Monday with Mrs. Elsie Ostling presiding. Mrs. Isobel Ferrier accompanied the opening hymn and Mrs. Mary Baillie read the Scripture and led in prayer.

Work proceeded during the afternoon on the doll cradles for the Bazaar and tea was served.

Mrs. W.E. Cavanaugh arrived back in Terrace Bay Sunday after a ten day visit in Eastern Ontario. In North Bay she visited with her brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edward Devine and attended the marriage of their son Grant to Miss Shirley Combe. Travelling from North Bay to Toronto with her daughter-in-law and son Arlene and Ted, Mrs. Cavanaugh visited there with daughter and son-in-law Mary and Hugh Chesley and another daughter-in-law and son Mavis and John Cavanaugh before returning home.

Liz Osmar and children were the guests of her Dad Mr. A.H. Gibbons in Pt. Arthur last week and over this weekend the Maurice Osmars had as their guests Elizabeth and Gerald Stewart, also of Port Arthur.

The ninth birthday of Claude Rochon was celebrated Sunday afternoon with a party for twelve of his friends. Watching TV and a hunt for peanuts and candy kisses occupied the afternoon till the birthday lunch was served.

Marlene Hanley had her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Leomis of Pt. Arthur visiting with her last week.