TO ALL HOUSE OWNERS

The following information is intended to clarify the relation between owners and utilities services in town.

The utilities committee are responsible for the supply of power up to and including the meters on your homes. They are also responsible for maintenance of same.

All electrical equipment on the house side of the meter belongs outright to the home owner. The owner is responsible for maintenance charges on his own equipment. However, the utilities committee reserve the following rights according to rules laid down by the Hydro Commission:

- (a) The location of the service panel both at the time of construction and during the life of the panel.
- (b) Where considered necessary (such as in installations of unmetered or flat rate power) the utilities reserve the right to seal the service boxes. Such seals can only be broken with the permission of the utilities superintendent. This does not absolve the owner from maintenance costs on the service box.

No further notice will be published on this subject.

(Signed) Your Utilities Committee,
The Township of Terrace Bay.
