

COMMUNITY CHURCH L.A. HOLD XMAS MEETING

"Silent Night" accompanied by Miss L. Lavender at the piano opened the Christmas meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary Monday evening in the Terrace Bay Community Church.

The President, Mrs. Ruth Paget welcomed all members and friends and voiced her appreciation to the December committee for the beautiful Christmas decorations ornamenting the Hall.

Mrs. Virginia Galvin read the minutes of the last meeting and the correspondence received to date. Treasurer's report was presented by Mrs. Ivy Pattison. Report of convenors as follows: Publicity - Mrs. Gertrude Cotton, Property - Mrs. Eva Haughn, Sick & Visiting - Mrs. Tina Young, Membership Mrs. Ethyl Maitland, Refreshments - Mrs. Ruby Smith.

A letter from Mr. John Wade, Chairman of the Church Board thanked the ladies Auxiliary for their generous offer to purchase further drapery for the Sunday School room. He regretted they found this drapery would impede an emergency exit in case of fire.

Mrs. Paget thanked Mrs. L. Harris, Bazaar Convenor for the very successful Bazaar held recently and Mrs. Harris in turn thanked each and every person who had worked directly or indirectly on the Committee and a special thanks to Mrs. Audrey Smith and Mrs. Marion Ward, Apron Booth Convenors whose name had been omitted from the Press release.

A request by Mrs. Paget for two Auditors found Mrs. Audrey Smith and Mrs. Marion Ward willing to serve. Mrs. Irene Goodfellow, Mrs. Emily Lohr and Mrs. Barbara Peterkin volunteered to form a nominating Committee. Mrs. Marge Lundberg requested on behalf of the Sunday School a large dial clock, and the Auxiliary voted its approval. Mrs. Maitland reported the Record Player had been purchased by the Afternoon Group and sent to Miss Collins at Moose Factory.

The Worship portion of the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Gertrude Soughton who introduced her theme as the Story of Mary, Mother of Jesus. Miss Maryellen Reynolds sang as her first solo of the evening "A Star of Bethlehem" after which Mrs. Ed West read the story, "Mary the Mother" from the book "Women of the Bible". Mrs. W. F. Colborne gave a second Christmas story from the world of today, "The Gift of the Magi" by O. Henry and Maryellen Reynolds again accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Hodgkiss, sang "The Blessed Bird".

A timely film on the Art of Gift Wrapping was shown to the ladies with Maryellen the projectionist and the entertainment closed with carol singing led by Mrs. Elsie Ostling. The ladies then sat down to a dainty and colourful Christmas luncheon served by the December committee.

The Afternoon Group of the Ladies Auxiliary enjoyed their Christmas Party on Monday also. The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Dorelle Wade and the members enjoyed a gift exchange and carol singing. Mrs. Vida Laporte accompanied the hymns. Sandwiches and Christmas Cake were served to the ladies by Mesdames Lois McCausland and Helen Brooks.

A man can usually tell what kind of time he's having at a party by the look on his wife's face.
