6 - 9 years - 1 P.M.

10 - 12 " - 3.30 P.M.

To insure the success of the party, please follow these simple rules:

1. Send children only to the party for their age group.
2. Send shopping bags with children in 2 - 5 year group.
3. Be on time.

Parents are advised that where children are sick or must be out of town, a note, signed by the parent, may be sent with a neighbour child to ensure that a gift is received.

Mrs. Beatrice Eaton passed away Friday morning in Timmins, Ontario. Fondly known to most of Terrace Bay as "Anty Bea" Mrs. Eaton left here in December 1956 due to ill health and has been residing in Toronto and Timmins. She had made her home with her neice Sparky Black and family while in Terrace Bay.

Sparky and Gordon Black left on Saturday for Timmins to attend the funeral services to be held there on Monday. To Sparky, Gordon and Terry we offer our deepest sympathy.

A very successful event was held by the Catholic Women's League when members entertained at a Coffee Party during their Xmas Candy & Bake Sale Saturday afternoon (See Page 6)
