CURLING CLUB NEWS

Saturday, December 19th, the Annual Christmas Party will take place in the Curling Club Lounge in conjunction with the mixed curling.

The big event of the evening will be the arrival of Santa Claus who, this year, will be accompanied by Mrs. Santa Claus.

It is hoped that Club Members will have a few gifts for their team-mates and friends, for Mr. and Mrs. Claus to distribute.

Start making plans to attend the Curling Club's Annual New Year's Eve Ball at the High School Auditorium, December 31st. Dancing from 10:00 P.M. to 2:00 A.M. - Cabaret Style, Music by Lakehead Orchestra, Dress Optional.

If you already have your party lined up contact Howard Solly for reservations.

LADIES CURLING

The Terrace Bay Ladies Curling Club would like to extend a warm welcome to the new curlers who have joined our Club this year -- Mrs. Chisholm, Mrs. Deboice, Mrs. Chapman, B. Peterkin, J. Smith, R. Priske, I. Schmidchen, H. McPherson, E. Zwir, V. Synishin, W. Palmer, L. Wellbourne, Marian Hanley, C. Lindquist, and A. Paulsen also a special greeting to our ex curlers who have returned.

Curling is on the up-sweep this year and many lively games have been played. Next year will see the Seagram's event nearing completion, with several teams battling it out for supremacy.

Early January will find the teams who have a rink entered in the Northwestern playing off for the right to represent the Terrace Bay Ladies Club. If you still haven't entered a team please do so to S. Duquette, Northwestern delegate.

SCHREIDER SKI CLUB TO SHOW MOVIE

ANOTHER RECIPE FROM YE OLDE COOK BOOK

HOW TO PRESERVE A HUSBAND - Be careful in your selection. Do not choose too young. When once selected give your entire thoughts to preparation for domestic use. Some insist upon keeping them in a pickle, other are constantly getting them in hot water. This may make them mouldy, hard and sometimes bitter. Even poor varieties may be made sweet, tender and good, by garnishing them with patience well sweetened with love and kisses. Wrap them in a mantle of charity. Keep warm with a steady fire of domestic devotion and serve with strawberries and cream. Thus prepared they will keep for years.
