PAT ROMANIUK WINS "MISS TERRACE BAY SUPERIORS CONTEST"

The announcement of the chosen Queen and two Princesses was made at the Miss Superiors Dance last Friday night.

Leading off the ceremonies Ken Ward introduced the eight contestants and thanked them all on behalf of the Terrace Bay Hockey Club for entering the contest.

The non-finalists were presented with token gifts by Mr. Don Blom, captain of the Superiors as they left the stage. The Queen and two Princesses were then crowned simultaneously by Mrs. Bouchard, Ken Hutchinson and Ken Ward.

Miss Pat Romaniuk was crowned as Miss Superior and the two Princesses were Sharon Marquis and Judy Thomas. In the absence of Judy, who was visiting her sister in the Lakehead, Mr. Karl Kolody received the Princess crown on her behalf.

The Queen was escorted from the stage by Mr. Blom and the Princesses by Mr. Gordon Calder and Mrs. B. Bouchard and the three couples, accompanied by the non-finalists and their escorts closed the ceremonies by starting the next dance.

The Terrace Bay Hockey Club Executive would like to thank Mrs. B. Bouchard, Mr. J. Heenan, Mr. J. Cummings and Mr. Ken Ward for their efforts on behalf of the contest.

The Club wishes Pat every success in the forthcoming Miss North Shore Hockey League Contest and urges everyone in Terrace Bay to support her as she vies for the Miss N.S.H.L. Crown.

Our thanks also to F.O. Soughton Ltd. and the Hudson Bay Store for their donations of prizes for the Queen and two Princesses.

Playoff time is here again so let's all get out and support the Superiors.
