ANNUAL KIWANIS BONSPIEL

On Saturday, February 27th, the Kiwanis Club of Terrace Bay was host to seven Kiwanians and their wives from the Port Arthur-Fort William Kiwanis Club. Curling took place Saturday afternoon followed by a dinner at the Hotel Terrace and a social evening in the Curling Club Lounge. Some twenty-five couples took part in the affair.

KIWANIS SINKING FUND

If you have not already purchased your tickets for the Kiwanis Club Sinking Fund, you may obtain one or several from any local Kiwanian. The earliest the ice has left Hayes Lake is April 27th. The latest date for break-up was June 1st. Sounds easy, doesn't it?? Get your guesses in and HELP KIWANIS TO HELP THE KIDDIES.

If Lincoln were alive today, he wouldn't have such a hard time getting an education. His height would entitle him to a basketball scholarship.

SCOUT NEWS - BLACK BEAR "BANTER"

The meeting of Thursday, February 25th, opened at 6.30 with 22 boys and 3 leaders taking part.

After a game the boys went to their patrol corners and planned an over-night hike to the Taylor Camp. Then the scouts enjoyed an interesting movie on the Holger-Nielson method of artificial respiration. After some test studying the boys were called into a horseshoe and the colour party of Dave Mercier, Dave Falzetta, and Fred Erickson retreated the colours, ending a successful meeting.

Over the weekend, 10 boys and leader, Jim Sweet, hiked to the Taylor Camp. We met at the Separate School grounds at 10 a.m., and were soon pulling our pack-laden toboggans toward the station and up the mill road. After securing snowshoes we hiked up-river to the camp. Here we were assigned our bunkrooms. The Feagle Patrol (Fox & Eagle) was made up of Randy Hutchinson, P.L.; Ron Downey, Second; Lee McKay and Ken Bradley. The Beabuff Patrol (Beaver and Buffalo) included Jim Hayes, P.L.; Bill Shivas, second; Brian McInnes, Dave Mercier, and Bruce Whitfield. After lunch, Bill Shivas and Jim Hayes hiked back down-river to pick up some supplies that had been dropped. After a visit by the Skip and his two sons, Jimmy and Dave, who came up on snowshoes as well, we ate supper and played around the tug Kay Cee which is laid up on shore for the winter. Then we had a snack and bedded down for the night. (Cont'd on Pg.9)
