YOUTH CONFERENCE NEXT WEEK

The time of the Northwestern Ontario Youth Conference, being held this year in Marathon, is fast approaching. On Thursday, April 21st, over 300 delegates from Teen Clubs throughout the area will gather for a four-day programme of discussions on the Teenager and Home, the Teenager and the Community, the Teenager Tomorrow. These subjects will be introduced by three very prominent people: Mrs. Eleanor Reesor, Y.W.C.A. Public Relations Director, Professor Bernard Hill of the University of Manitoba School of Social Work, and Dr. C.H. Reason.

To outline the impact that this annual Conference has had on the area since its inception eight years ago, would be virtually impossible. The mature planning and administrative skills displayed by these young people, the outstanding manner in which they handle the Conference, would be a great lesson to many adult groups.

Now the largest Conference of its kind in North America, the Northwestern Ontario Youth Conference stands as a determined effort by our youngsters to prepare themselves for a better and more useful adult life. It is a credit to their ability.

Competent supervision by adult counsellors, strict disciplinary rules (laid down by the host committee) and a rigid schedule, allow for no wasted time. Delegates are billeted in specially chosen private homes, and must obey curfew hours and attend all sessions.

Eighteen Terrace Bay teenagers, chosen by a point system on their work at Teen Town throughout the year, will attend this year's Conference. They are the top point-getters from the local club members, all of whom have worked hard all year in club (Cont'd page 11)
