

K OF C HOLD INITIATION - Cont'd from Pg. 1)

At 7 p.m., the Knights and their ladies gathered at the Mosse Hall in Terrace Bay where they were served a delicious turkey dinner by the Women of the Moose. Approximately two hundred and eighty persons attended including a large contingent from the Lakehead and many from other district points. The clergy were represented by Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher of Terrace Bay, Rev. Father J.M. Cano, Chaplain of St. Edward's Council of Schreiber and Rev. Father A. Greengrass of Marathon. Father Cano gave the address of welcome. Visiting Grand Knights were: Mr. Leon Jean of Red Rock and Mr. Joseph Doyle of Geraldton. State Advocate Louis Salini brought greetings from the State Council and addressed the new members briefly as did District Deputy Don Coghlan who brought greetings from District 14.

The guest speaker for the evening was a Past Grand Knight of St. Edward's Council, now a member of Fort William Council, Mr. E. A. Marostica. He directed his remarks primarily at the new members emphasizing in particular the four precepts of the Order - Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. He also urged everyone in attendance to take the message of Fatima to heart.

A.J. Cadieux, Sr., was chairman of the Initiation Day Committee which made all arrangements for the day. He was also Toastmaster at the banquet and during the course of the evening, on behalf of St. Edward's Council, presented to former District Deputy E.J. Elvish a plaque congratulating Fort William Council on their 50th anniversary.
