TOWN TOPICS - Cont'd from Pg. 2

Locking and family by friends, associates and neighbors filled their last month in Terrace Bay to its limit. Besides the community tribute in the High School on Monday evening, June 27, Mr. Locking was presented with gifts at the High School Prom. On behalf of students from the school's inception in 1952 till 1958, Marvin Steen presented Mr. Locking with a painting "Shack in the Woods", one of his favorites, and for the present students Gary Crandlemire gave Mr. Locking luggage and their best wishes.

Several bridges were held for Mrs. 'Tops' Locking; a Neighbor Bridge at the home of Mrs. Gwen Olsen when Mrs. Jan Hall was co-hostess, another by her bridge club at Paget's Beach Cottage and a third at the home of Mrs. Marge Hutchinson with co-hostesses Mrs. Marge Anderson and Mrs. Marge Lundberg. Gifts were given at each affair.

A presentation of China was made to Mrs. Locking by her music pupils at her last recital. A Beach Party was held for Sharon by her school friends when she received a camera in farewell and a lawn party was held at the home of Page Ginn for Margy Dale with teacher Mrs. Colborne and her school chums attending. A gift of a record and ring was made to Margy Dale.

Mrs. Phyllis Woods presided at a meeting of the Terrace Bay Branch of the North Shore Nurses Group on June 22nd in the Recreation Centre.

Plans were finalized for the Bridge and Cribbage Party to be held on August 4th at the Terrace Bay Moose Hall. Proceeds from the party will go to Retarded Children.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Group.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rowlandson and family of Neenah, Wisc., visited for a week at the home of Mr. & Mrs. P. Gombola. While in the district, the Rowlandsons renewed old friendships and daughter Dawn attended the annual High School Prom.
