TOWN TOPICS

HAWAIIAN CHRISTMAS AT PLAYGROUND

This Friday the children from Marathon Playground will be visiting Terrace Bay.

Along with the theme of Hawaiian Christmas the children are making palm trees, Christmas cards, decorations and presents (using our own craft materials).

We are also planning some entertainment for our Marathon visitors.

All children are urged to come out and be a part of this event and help to show the Marathon youngsters a good time.

Remember the 25th--Awards Night. Preparations are beginning now for our variety show.

FREDA HEINRICH HONOURED AT BRIDAL SHOWER

Last Wednesday evening a very surprised Freda Heinrich was the guest of honour at a Miscellaneous Shower in the Curling Club Lounge, put on by many of her friends from Terrace Bay and Schreiber, Mesdames Dodie Burnside, Mavis Godin, Brenda Campbell, May Caldwell, Joyce Sweet, Cermaine Delaronde, and Dolores Tychoniak and Miss Mary Lou Elliott.

The Hall had been gaily decorated for her arrival and she was presented with a corsage before all the lovely gifts were given to her. Assisting with the gifts were her sisters, Mrs. Gretchen Keeting and Miss Darlene Heinrich.

The ladies played several games of bingo and the evening closed with a social hour and luncheon served by the hostesses.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY PLAN ANNUAL SHOW

This year at the annual Flower and vegetable Show, first and second prizes will be given for every item, as well as awards for aggregate winners in each class.

Members of the Horticultural Society should submit their entry forms to secretary, Mrs. R. Cotton or show chairman, Mrs. D. Husband, by Wednesday, August 24th.

Mrs. Liz Osmar is a patient in the Port Arthur General Hospital following her operation last week and is wished a speedy recovery.

Mrs. May Mallais is recuperating in McKellar Hospital, Fort William following her operation and we wish her a speedy recovery too.
