SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR HELD IN ST. MARTIN'S CHURCH

The Fall Bazaar held annually by St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church in Terrace Bay and supported by members of the Catholic Women's League was held on Saturday afternoon under the convenorship of Mrs. C. Knauff. Greeting the guests with Mrs. Knauff was the League President Mrs. F. Helmink.

The teatable was tastefully arranged with an ecru lace cloth centred by a low crystal vase of roses and flanked by white tapers in crystal candlelabra. Tearoom hostess was Mrs. W.J. Cavanaugh and pouring during the afternoon were Mesdames P. Gombola, A. LeBlanc, D. Gillis and R. Slattery. The servitors were members of the Catholic Girls Club and replenishing were Mesdames H. Boudreau, J. Todd and D. Whalen. Tea Tickets were sold by Mrs. J. MacDonald and Mrs. M. Nicol.

Members of the Catholic Girls Club were a busy group at the Bazaar. In addition to tea servitors they held their own booth of candy and baked goods, and took charge of the Fish Pond for the children. Previously they had cleverly decorated the Church Hall for the occasion.

Activity centred on the many colorful booths at the Bazaar until each in turn were completely sold out. The Apron Booth was presided over by Mesdames J. Ruzyski, R. Woodruff and M. Strom. In charge of the Bake Tables were Mesdames C. MacDonald and R. Boyle. Mrs. L. Edmunds and Mrs. K. McLeod took charge of the White Elephant Booth and Mrs. J. Anderson and Mrs. A. Ziegleman catered to the Candy Table. The Hot Dog stand was opened by Mrs. J. Corrigan and Mrs. A. Connors.

Two raffles were held in the afternoon with Mrs. F. Cruickshank in charge. The Transistor Radio was won by Mrs. W. Adamo and the floral piece by Mrs. A. Connors.

Mrs. Knauff thanks all her assistants and the many friends who attended, both contributing towards this very successful event.

Mrs. Grace Moores is a patient in the Marathon Hospital following her recent operation.

Visitors at the Walter Anderson home recently have been Mr. & Mrs. G.A. Brown, enroute to their home in Dryden from vacationing in New Brunswick. Mrs. Anderson's Mother, Mrs. A. Johnston returned home with them from Terrace Bay.

Last weekend Lillian and Ed Burk of Port Arthur were visitors with the Andersons and the previous week Marge, Walter and Margo Anderson had motored to Minneapolis to visit Walter's neice, Mrs. Don Rasmussen.

The Local Association to Guides and Brownies will meet Monday evening, October 24 in the small meeting room of the Recreation Centre at 8:30 P.M. Everyone urged to attend.

Many farewell parties have been held for the families leaving for Castlegar, B.C. Joan and Joe Charban were entertained at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Howard Solly when seventeen couples spent an enjoyable evening dancing and partaking of the buffet supper. The group presented the Charbans with a motorized barbecue. A gift of chinaware was given to Joan from the Terrace Bay Ladies Curling Club, and jewellery was presented to her from her co-workers at the Imperial Bank. Joe received an electric razor from his co-workers at the Mill together with their best wishes.

Rita and Harold Newell and their family also left last week for Castlegar and a Stag was held for Harold by his friends and co-workers when he was presented with a purse. Rita was entertained by her bridge club. at the home of Mrs. Bert Edmonds when she was given a Spode Vase. A mixed party surprised the Newells at their home and here they received an ice bucket.
