KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS INSTALL OFFICERS

Recent activities of St. Edward's Council No. 3554, Knights of Columbus, included the installation of Officers for the 1960-61 term. This ceremony took place at the regular meeting held in Schreiber, October 27th, with District Deputy Albert Cadieux, assisted by District Warden Jack Anderson, in charge.

The Officers for the current term are as follows: Chaplain, Rev. J.M. Cano; Grand Knight, Mel Nicol; Deputy Grand Knight, Mike McGrath; Chancellor, Lionel Bourguignon; Recorder, John Power, Financial Secretary, Pat Guina; Treasurer, Larry Bourke; Lecturer, Paul Pagararo; Advocate, Willard Vezina; Warden, Art McGoey, Inside Guard, Raoul Fournier; Outside Guard, Joe Marcella; Trustees, J.C. Gagnon, Joe Ruzyski and Garry Birmingham.

Sunday, October 30, under the direction of Catholic Activity Chairman, Ed. Borutski, about forty Knights received Communion in a body at the 8 a.m. Mass in Holy Angel's Church.

A breakfast in the Schreiber Hotel followed. Those present were treated to movies showing the luck (good and bad) that some local fishermen had on a trip to the Albany River.

than $33,000. in bonds to better last year's total. Sign up today. If you don't know who your canvasser is, phone the Employment Office or come in.

Remember, this series of bonds has an average interest yield of 4.71% if held until maturity (10 years). The interest on a $100 bond the first year is $4.00. If you find it necessary to cash in a bond before it is fully paid for, you would receive the full amount that you had paid in. Paid-up bonds, of course, are cashable at any time at full face value plus interest. In other words, no matter when you cash in a bond, you can't lose.
