FALCON FOLLOWINGS (by Chris Cavanaugh)

The meeting of Nov. 18 came to order at 6.30 with inspection, followed by the forming of a Horseshoe, flagbreak by David Roberts, the P.L. of the Lions. We then returned to our patrol corners. About three minutes later Scouter Alec Boyd called us to form a straight line, and we were put into three groups to commence a game of "Pony Express". The game had a big effect on the meeting because of the injuries. After returning to our patrol corners and working on tests we had a (Continued on Page 10)
