building fund for an anticipated club house to be built at the present site of the curling club.

The Club executive are again planning for the New Year's Dance to be held in the High School Auditorium.

The curling ice surface is all set to go for another active curling season. The club executive handed a well deserved bouquet to Lou Duquette and his ice committee for doing such a terrific job in painting the ice surface this year. It has never looked better.

The Ladies Club of eleven rinks are away to a fine start. Last week they held a cup and saucer bonspiel and their regular schedule is now underway.

Both clubs are all set then for a busy schedule of some fine curling.

For the new members and some of the old ones the following is the executive and directors of the Men's Club which keeps the Men's Club activities on the go all winter: Pres. R. Ostling, First Vice Pres. J. Wellings, Second Vice Pres. J. Chapman, Treasurer D. Evans-Smith, Secretary H. Brophy, Directors T. Olsen, L. Duquette, H. Hamilton, B. Hayes, K. Johnson, Trustees J. Lang, Joe Butler, Ice Chairman L. Duquette, Membership Chairman K. Johnson, Draw Chairman H. Hamilton, Bonspiel and New Year's Dance T. Olsen, Prizes J. Chapman, Entertainment B. Hayes, Reception H. Brophy. The president of the club is ex-officio on all committees.

Russ Mayotte, who has been with the show since its inception in 1955 has been named 1961 general chairman succeeding Lou Danis.

Earl Nygren, the newly-elected president of the Westfort Kivans Club, serves as co-chairman. Stan Malinoski is show manager for his third year.

The chairman announced that "The Seven Moroccans," sensational tumblers, acrobats and pyramid builders, will be the featured act.

Attendance and program prizes will be valued at more than $6,000. (Cont'd next col.)
