

NSHL ALL-STAR GAME AT TERRACE BAY SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon, December 4th at 1:30 P.M. the 1960-61 NSHL All-Star game will be played at Terrace Bay. Last year's Champions, the Marathon Mercuries, will meet an All-Star team made up of players from the Nipigon Flyers, Red Rock Royals and the Terrace Bay Superiors. Most of Marathon's team of last year will be back, plus some new players. Two noticeable absentees will be Ed Eolan, who indicates he has retired, and Allie LeBlanc who is playing hockey with St. Paul, Minnesota in the International League.. The make-up of the All-Star team will be:-

FORWARDS -

Dahl, Oja, Legacy - from Nipigon
Morgan, Smith, Fournier - from Red Rock
Osmar, Osmar, Whalen - from Terrace Bay

DEFENCEMEN

Swan, Jones - from Nipigon
H. Dunville, Gallant - from Red Rock
Brassard, Pollard - from Terrace Bay

GOALIES

Jorgenson - from Red Rock
Dobson - from Terrace Bay

All the fans who attend this game will not only see the outstanding players in the NSHL but will be helping the Clubs. The League cut on the proceeds of this game is divided four ways and sent to each team to help defray their insurance costs. Special admittance charges are in effect for this All-Star SHOW AS FOLLOWS:- ADULTS - $1.00 Seats and CHILDREN UNDER SIXTEEN 35¢. These prices are set by the N.S.H.L.

Season ticket holders will have till 6 P.M. Saturday to pick up tickets for this game. Box office will open 12:30 P.M. on Sunday.

DON'T FORGET - 1:30 P.M. SUNDAY NSHL ALL-STAR ACTION.

will conduct the school. A film will be shown and discussions take place concerning the proper way for officials to handle games.

HOCKEY GAME FRIDAY - MARATHON VS TERRACE BAY

Friday night at 8 p.m. the first hockey game of the local season will be played. Marathon will be visiting Terrace to play an exhibition game. This game will serve to give the fans a look at the new faces on each club. Veteran players still with Terrace are the Osmar brothers, Whalen, Calder, Brassard, Pollard, Pytyck, Desrossiers, Kolody, Dobson and Gavin. New players and returning players after an absence are Adamo, Schock, Tookenay, Polhill, McLeod, Bond and LeBlanc. Let's all turn out to give the boys a good start on the 60-61 season.

Ticket prices for this game will be as outlined in the advertisement below. Season ticket holders will have until 6 p.m. Friday to claim their tickets. Box office opens at 7 p.m.
