PRE-ELECTION MEETING LAST THURSDAY NIGHT

Approximately forty interested citizens attended the meeting sponsored by the Commerce Committee last Thursday when candidates for Council were given an opportunity to speak.

Chairman of the Commerce Committee, F.O. Soughton, welcomed those present and outlined the procedure to be followed during the evening. Each candidate was allowed five minutes to speak and numbered cards drawn by them indicated their order of appearance.

In the absence of Reeve Ferrier, a text, prepared by him, was read by C.E. Paget. In it Reeve Ferrier outlined Council activities during the past one and one-half years and thanked all those who supported him and Council members and Municipal Staff for their co-operation.

Incumbent Councillors Heenan, Bouchard and Evans-Smith outlined work carried on during their tenure in office and projects the various committees headed by them have on the planning Board. Nominees Farrow and Baillie mentioned their association with other groups and asked for support.

An interesting and lively question and answer period elicited information on-- speed control on the Highway; Terrace Bay Band; Recreation Committee appointments and deficits, etc., - restriction on types of businesses; time of Council meetings; Chamber of Commerce; Crosswalks on Highway; and encouraging new industry to the town.

HUMAN RIGHTS WEEK - DECEMBER 4TH TO 11TH

Ontario's six hundred secondary schools-- public and private-- have been asked by Minister of Education John P. Robarts, Q.C., to observe the period of December 4 - 11 as Human Rights Week.

In a special message to all principals, Mr. Robarts suggested the holding of special assemblies and class-room discussion with the aim of impressing upon the pupils the importance of human rights.

"The youth of our Province," said the Minister of Education, "should be led to recognize the fact that racial and religious prejudice, intolerance and discrimination are alien to our Canadian tradition.

"In recent years, Ontario has been privileged to welcome great numbers of people from other lands who, with their skills and creative talents, have added their own special contributions to our national life. We must leave no doubt in the minds of these new members of our Ontario family that their life with us will be free from discrimination.
