TOWN TOPICS - (Continued from Page 2)

Mr. Alex Cruickshank recently travelled to Neepawa, Manitoba to attend the one hundredth birthday of his aunt, Mrs. Margaret Cruickshank. Still in good health and high spirits Mrs. Cruickshank received congratulations and best wishes from relatives and friends across the country and from Scotland. She attributes her longevity to faith in God and her work. Coming to this country from Scotland as a young bride, she and her husband homesteaded near Neepawa, Manitoba until his untimely death at an early age. She carried on alone, raising her eight children through those pioneer days and now lives with her daughters in Neepawa.

Patty Thorsteinson celebrated her tenth birthday last Wednesday. Games and contests were enjoyed and birthday luncheon served.

Miss Alvera Wood is recuperating at the home of her mother in Fort Frances, having been hospitalized since Christmas.

Mrs. Alex Sinkins visited Mrs. Mary Duguid in Port Arthur last weekend.

Peggy and Jack Wellings entertained at a dinner party for Lila and Alex Gray of Port Arthur last Sunday.

Mrs. R. Harris, son Samuel and Mrs. S. Boyd Sr. were Lakehead visitors over the weekend.

Little Sharon Bougie celebrated her third birthday January 9th with the help of fourteen little friends. The children enjoyed noise-makers, hats and balloons before the party lunch. Mrs. Bougie assisted by Mrs. Fay Vienneau served tea to the mothers.

Joan Lundberg of Heron Bay, accompanied by Miss Sylvia Rhine of Ft. William, was home for the weekend (Continued on Page 7)
