

Continued from Page 7 - -
GUIDES AND BROWNIES - a successful Guide Camp this year.

Mrs. Coe reminded the group that beginning with this meeting, they were no longer bound by any Constitution and that now all meetings are to be conducted by an executive. Guiders and any other interested persons are welcome. The next meeting is to be held the fourth Monday in February at the home of Mrs. Hanna.

LADIES AUXILIARY PLAN POT LUCK SUPPER

The evening branch of the Ladies Auxiliary will meet at 6.30 P.M. on Monday, Feb. 6th beginning with a Pot Luck Supper, in the Terrace Bay Community Church.

Following the Supper, the programme at 8.15 will be a travelogue of Russia with commentary. Anyone planning to attend the Pot Luck Supper contact Mrs. Peterkin 3749, or Mrs. Lundberg 3698.

ART CLUB NEWS

All members are requested to be on hand on Thursday night to make favours for the dance to be held Feb. 10th. Bring paint brushes and imagination. Our dance decorations are to be something different from the usual sort of thing.

Anyone not yet having purchased their tickets may call at Ken Ward's office or contact any Art Club member.

Music by Adamos Orchestra - Vocalist Cosmo Filane.

DANCE CLASSES

Those interested in taking Ballroom Dancing Classes are urged to contact the Recreation Office soon. No classes will be scheduled until we are sure that a sufficient number are interested.

TERRACE BAY AND SCHREIBER SOCIAL NEWS

Bob Williams motored to Nakina to bring Constable Jack Hayes, his wife Eunice and children to Terrace Bay for the week-end to be guests at the Williams home. During their stay they acted as Godparents at the Christening Sunday, January 22, to Tiquila Roberta Williams in St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church. A dinner was held following the Christening when Very Rev. Dean E.A. Gallagher and Rev. A.J. Rokowski were honored guests, and a reception was held later.

Saturday evening the Hayes had further opportunity to say hello to their former

REXALL
COUGH-CENTER
TABLETS

TRY

Help calm the nerve center that makes you cough

THE DIETERY SUPPLEMENT FOR ALL AGES -- PARAMETTES.

Waghorn's
 PHARMACY TERRACE BAY ONT.

friends and neighbors when a party was held in their honour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kolesar of Atikoken were guests last weekend at the home of Mrs. Kolesar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Churney.

Mrs. Bea Williams was in Toronto last week where she attended the Womens Services meeting for the Cancer Society held in the Lord Simcoe Hotel, and spoke highly of the workshops she had attended during the two days.

Molly Harris celebrated her eleventh birthday Saturday afternoon with a party for ten girlfriends. Fun was had with games and concluded with birthday cake and party lunch.

Mrs. G. Spiess of Fort William visited her daughter Doreen Kurylo and family over the weekend and attended the mid-winter conference held here Sunday of the Women of the Moose.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ford of Pine Falls, Man. visited with their daughter and son-in-law, Kay and Jack Anderson last week, Mrs. Ford spending the week with her family while Mr. Ford joined her Saturday enroute home from a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. Ted Young leaves Wednesday for Toronto to join her husband who will undergo surgery at Toronto Western Hospital shortly.

Mrs. Frank Boon, Fort William visited with friends and relatives in Schreiber while the guest of Mrs. D. Slater.

Mrs. F. Waywell and Mrs. P. Banville of Montreal, Que. are the guests of Mrs. Waywell's daughter and son-in-law Mr. & Mrs. Geo. Etches and also visiting with the A. Majors.

Mr. Dominic Diano is a patient in McKellar Hospital in Fort William.

Mrs. D. Duncan of Kelowna, B.C. is visiting relatives and old friends and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Corbett enroute to visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Crombie and family in Saudi Arabia and they plan to tour Europe together.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Watts, Buena Vista, N.B. are the guests of their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCouan have left to spend a holiday in Bradenton, Florida.

RESULTS OF TERRACE BAY-MARATHON GAME

Superiors defeated Marathon Mercuries by a 7-5 score in Tuesday night's game here. The first two periods were Marathon's but the Sups exploded in the third to take the game.

Valentine
 Dance

Feb. 10th.
 9pm - 1am.

Schreiber Town Hall

Music by the Twiliters per
 Admission: $1.50 couple

