The Nip-Rock girls won two games Saturday to win the round-robin basketball tournament in Red Rock. In the opening game Nip-Rock downed the Terrace Bay squad 32 to 17. Terrace Bay picked up speed in the second half but couldn't overtake the powerful Nip-Rock team. Nip-Rock was victorious once more when they trounced Marathon 71 to 17. Terrace Bay met Marathon in the final game and scored a 43 to 12 victory.

MINOR HOCKEY NIGHT

Don't forget Minor Hockey Night on Friday, February 17th. KEEP THAT DATE OPEN. Tickets are available from most Minor Hockey players, so make your purchase early. This is your opportunity to show the kids and their coaches that the people of Terrace Bay are solidly behind the Minor Hockey Association.

A complete programme will be published in a future edition of the "NEWS".

SATURDAY NIGHT NHL GAMES

Several weeks ago, a giant telegram was sent to the CBC by Eastern hockey fans, requesting that the CBC televise all three periods of the Saturday night National Hockey League games, as well as all three periods of playoff games.

Bill Guy of the Port Arthur News Chronicle has undertaken to add the support of North-western Ontario fans by sending a similar wire from this area.

ANYONE WISHING TO ADD HIS NAME TO THE LIST MAY DO SO BY LEAVING 10¢ AT THE LOCAL RECREATION OFFICE. Deadline is February 10th.

SUPERIORS STILL HEAD THE LEAGUE

Superiors are still piling up the points for league leaders in the N.S. Hockey, but had some close calls in the last two games. Against Marathon Thursday they had a good 6-3 lead at the end of the second period but slumped in the third to have the score soar to 7-6 favour of Marathon. Schock got the puck past DeLuca to tie the score which wasn't broken in the ten minutes overtime. Sunday against Nipigon, Superiors again had a 6-3 lead. At the beginning of the third period they suffered the same slump and the Flyers bounced the score to a tie. Marvin Osmar pulled the team ahead in the last minute but it was too close for comfort, although without doubt it becomes an exceedingly exciting finish.

You will be approached by one of the Miss Superiors in the near future to purchase a booster button. Remember the support you give will help the best team that Terrace Bay has yet put into the league.

TERRACE BAY BANTAMS CONTINUE WIN STREAK

Last Saturday afternoon the local bantams travelled to White River and defeated the home club 6 to 4.

Billy Stachiw continues to murder the opposition firing three goals. David Falzetta with two and Grant Solly with one were the other Terrace Bay marksmen.
