LOCAL RINKS TAKE HONOURS IN LADIES BONSPIEL

The Terrace Bay Ladies Bonspiel ended on Sunday afternoon with local rinks taking all of the prizes in the first event. A rink skipped by S. Duquette took the Nesco Trophy, a Trophy awarded annually to the 'Spiel Champion. M. Hamilton played 3rd - N. Crockford 2nd - and A. Sinkins, lead on this rink.

Runner up in the event was a rink skipped by P. Wellings--the I. Romaniuk rink took third place and I. Edmonds guided her quartet to the fourth spot.

Mrs. E. McLean of Port Arthur skipped H. Andrews, L. Frank and M. Bell to first place in "B" Event. The Lila Gray rink of Port Arthur won second prize--the Morrison Rink from Wawa came in third and Mrs. Moodie of Pt. Arthur came fourth.

Mary Hale, D. Pastor, H. Brophy and E. Zwyr of Terrace Bay won the "C" Event and Mrs. F. Duggan's rink from Schreiber came second. Another Schreiber rink skipped by N. Thrower placed third and the Cokayne rink from Wawa came in fourth.

On Saturday evening the visitors were entertained at a Banquet held in the Moose Hall and catered to by the Ladies of the Moose. The refreshments and entertainment, which included a show directed and prepared by Alice Joy Blom, and several other skits, were very much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Betty Bouchard was a capable Mistress of Ceremonies and Mrs. E. Hodgkiss provided dinner music and accompanied the song.

Prizes and Awards distributed at the Banquet included one to the rink knocked out of the 'Spiel first--won by a Schreiber Rink skipped by Lena Holmes. Another Schreiber rink skipped by F. Caccamo were awarded vouchers and the Electric Fryer Draw was won by Mrs. E. Grover of Schreiber.

A social evening in the Club Lounge concluded Saturday's entertainment.

Bonspiel Chairman, Mrs. Mary Hale, extends her sincere thanks to the men who so generously gave their time during the 'Spiel and also to the ladies who worked with her.
