MR. J. HERBERT DAWSON ADDRESSES C.W.L.

Mrs. Jack Anderson, Catholic Women's League representative to the Schreiber Committee of the Port Arthur Children's Aid Society introduced the guest speaker, Mr. J. Herbert Dawson, to a gathering of St. Martin's parishioners, in the Parish Hall at 9.00 P.M. on Sunday, June 4. The talk began with a comparison of the home life of a century ago to the home life of today and the effect it has on the child. Mr. Dawson also stressed that the purpose of the Children's Aid Society keeps the child in his own home by helping parents overcome conditions which result in neglect of children. It provides a home for the child who has none by finding a permanent adoption home for him. We secure temporary homes for the children whose own home cannot, temporarily, care for him by placing him in a supervised, boarding foster home. We also help the unmarried mother to plan intelligently for her child's care, in order that he may yet have an opportunity to become a useful happy citizen.

Mr. Dawson's very informative and interesting talk was well received, as shown by the variety of questions posed from the floor. Some of the questions asked were:

"What is the age limit for parents who wish to adopt a child?" Answer - Forty-five; but in some cases older. Question - Are younger children allowed to be taken in a foster home where there are teenagers at home? Answer - Yes, we find this often good for them. Q. - How does the Children's Aid Society determine how a child is emotionally neglected? A. - The Children's Aid have a psychologist go into the home, and he determines. Q. - What ages are the Foster Children? A. - They are from 7 days to 18 years.

In concluding Mr. Dawson stressed the need for foster homes in this area.

Miss Muriel Atcheson - Social Worker for this area, whose headquarters are in Schreiber accompanied Mr. Dawson.

Lunch was served by Mrs. George Dashkewytch and her group.

DORLEEN PASTOR HONOURED AT BRIDAL SHOWER

Dorleen Pastor was escorted into the Moose Hall last Wednesday evening by Stella Brown to become the surprised guest of honor at a shower. A lovely corsage of pink roses was pinned on Dorleen and they were promptly entertained by a Mock Fashion Show. Commentator Virginia Galvin introduced the delightful or delirious models: E. Partington, V. Drexler, J. Gunter, A. Blom, A. Sinkins, C. Gould, J. Schritt, K. Kelly, P. Wellings, and S. Brown. The ladies further enjoyed a tape recording, courtesy of Mr. B. Lohr, of the recent Harmony Belles Concert, of which the bride-elect is a member.

On behalf of Dorleen's friends, the five hostesses, S. Brown, D. Kurylo, J. Schritt, A. Paulsen and V. Drexler presented her with gifts of household furnishings and linens. I. Goodfellow was luncheon hostess and served a dainty luncheon to conclude the social evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Farrow, Mr. & Mrs. A. Sinkins, Mr. & Mrs. T. Brown, Mr. & Mrs. S. Boyd Sr., Mr. & Mrs. S. Lundberg, Mr. & Mrs. H. Hall, Mr. & Mrs. J. Clancy (Cont'd Pg.10)
