COMETS DROP TWO

Terrace Bay Comets played host to the P.A. Red Sox on Sunday and moved deeper in the cellar as they dropped two games to the Sox.

In the first game Ricky Polhill and Pete Roberts hooked up in what looked to be a real pitcher's duel until the fifth inning when Polhill seemed to tire and the Sox came up with two runs on three hits. Comets came up with a run in their half of the fifth. Sox came back with single runs in the 6th and 7th innings. The Sox other run was scored in the fourth inning. The Comets could manage only three hits off Roberts, with Kolody coming up with two of them, including a booming triple in second inning. Ken Ward got the other hit. Red Sox got nine hits off Polhill. Final score - Red Sox 5 - Comets 1.

In the second game Comets lost 4 - 0, with Hygaard besting Kolody. Red Sox got one run in the third and came up with three more in the fifth. The Sox got six off Kolody while the Comets again could only pick up three hits - all singles. Kolody struck out ten men and Hygaard six.
