PUBLIC SCHOOL PUPILS PRESENT MUSICAL PROGRAM

Music activities in the Terrace Bay Public School concluded their term Wednesday with a very fine musical afternoon in the Highschool Auditorium, produced and directed by Mr. A. Bishop. The program he presented was designed to show the integration of the music course from Kindergarten to Grade eight. Each level emphasized the particular musical interest and need and the great variety of folk songs, and religious themes presented by the children indicated the progress made in the past season.

The Kindergarten classes under their teacher Miss Ellen Ceasar sang "Happy Wednesday to You" before proceeding with their Bird Songs for Spring. Mrs. Hansen's Grade one class sang "A Little Grey Pigeon", "Good Morning, Merry Sunshine", and "The Organ Grinder."

The Grade Two Class, Miss Raper's room, gave a remarkable song and recitation number on "The Three Billy Goats Gruff". Miss Wood's Grade three class sang "Skip to My Lou", "Susie Little Susie", "Donkey Riding" and concluded with the "Crusaders Hymn".

From Grade Four, Miss Kochan's class, sang the "Austrian Hymn", "Oranges and Lemons", "Too Ril Te Too", "The Brook", and "Pasquale". Mr. Lake's Grade five pupils entertained with "My Donkey Diodoro", "Sweet Betsy from Pike", "Fisher Maiden", "In The Plaza" and "Squid Jiggin Ground".

Mrs. Colborne's pupils from Grade six presented as their songs "The Keeper", "Marianina", "O Sole Mio", "Cielito Lindo" and concluded with the gay "Dancing, Dancing".

Mr. Bishop's class of grade seven students sang "The Necklace", "Chiapanecas", "Sailor Jack" and were joined in the chorus by the audience for "Buffalo Gals". Grade eight class from Mr. Colborne's room appeared to sing "Olive Trees are Standing", "Down in the Valley" and "The Road to the Isles" before they were joined to form a mass choir of Grade seven and eight to sing "How Great Thou Art" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Contributing to the musical fare during the program were both the Junior and Senior Flute groups, again directed by Mr. A. Bishop. As a point of interest here, five of the Public School musicians have become permanent members of the Terrace Bay Band.

Mr. Bishop is to be congratulated on his fine work with the pupils in the Terrace Bay Public School, both for his music and flute classes. He leaves Terrace Bay to become the Music Supervisor of Fort Frances Public Schools this coming term.
