

C.Y.O. PLAY WELL RECEIVED

On June 27th and 28th in the Schreiber Town Hall, the C.Y.O. presented a smooth, fast-moving comedy entitled "Abie's Irish Rose."

Abraham Levy, played by Joe Figliomeni, was the fellow who got to kiss the girl at every opportunity. The title role, "Abie's Irish Rose" was played by Barbara Foster. All the world loves a lover they say, but with notable exceptions--namely, his father, portrayed by Cosmo Filane, and her father, enacted by Michael Cosgrove. If you think Romeo & Juliette had it tough, you should have seen what happened to these kids once their fathers got into the act. To a gentle, it shouldn't happen! But, don't worry, in spite of all, love survived.

The supporting cast included:- Ivan Cocks as Isaac Cohen, Doris McParland as Mrs. Cohen, Philip Moorey as Dr. Samuels and Jim Duggan as Father Whalen and Billy-Ann Cocks, Jane Syvitski, Rosa Speziale and Judy St. Jean as Bridesmaids. Direction - Cosmo Filane and Make-up - Lynn Fisher.

Even Clyde Gilmore would have agreed it was a fine performance. Why don't we have more of this kind of entertainment?

JOSEPHINE DIANO AND GIOVANNI TRICHILO WED

Pink gladioli adorned the altar and pews in Holy Angels' Roman Catholic church in Schreiber on June 24th for the marriage of Josephine, daughter of Mr. Dominic Diano and the late Mrs. Diano, and Giovanni Trichilo, all of Schreiber.

Father J.M. Cano officiated and Miss Carol

Lalonde was organist. Ushers were Tony and Giovanni Speziale and groomsmen were Frank and Cosmo Diano, brothers of the bride and Dominic Ruso of Toronto.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white silk organza, the hooped skirt banded with chantilly lace extending into a cathedral train. The basque bodice featured a sabrina neckline with chantilly lace yoke continuing down to lily pointed sleeves. A Belgian imported headdress of cut crystal held a double French illusion veil and she carried tea roses and white baby orchids in a cascade bouquet.

Bridal attendants were, her sister, Mrs. Joseph Speziale, Matron of Honour, the Misses Rosale Speziale and Mary Trichilo, bridesmaids and Maria Veneziano, flower girl. All wore organza gowns in the same style, Mrs. Speziale in Lilac and the others in lemon yellow. Tiaras of pearls and mohair with short veils were worn by the senior attendants while the flower girl wore a tied bonnet brim. They carried bouquets of carnations in complementing colours. Master Joe Speziale, a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

A wedding breakfast was held in the Speziale home and, in the afternoon, a reception was held in the home of the bride's father. Receiving with the wedding party were Mrs. Sarah Figliomeni, sister of the bride, and Mrs. A. Trichilo, sister-in-law of the groom. Mrs. V. Speziale was dining room hostess and servitors were the Misses Teresa, Frances and Rosa Speziale.

Mr. & Mrs. Trichilo left New York by boat for a three month honeymoon in Italy. (Cont'd P.6)
