TONY'S specials JULY 27-28-29.

MINOR BASEBALL ALLSTARS (Cont'd from pg. 1) practices will resume. Practices will commence next week with a National League workout at 4.30 on Tuesday and a Bantam session at 4.30 on Thursday. Any players who played in these leagues this year are welcome to try out.

COURSES COMING TO QUETICO
 In addition to the courses listed below, other courses will be announced from time to time.
 Aug. 25 - Sept 1. YOUTH COUNSELLORS COURSE: The purpose of the course is to provide training in program skills essential to the conduct of youth organizations and to interpret the role and job of the counsellor and the function of the executive members of youth organizations.
 Sept. 10-22. CANADIAN LABOUR CONGRESS SUMMER SCHOOLS: Henry Weisbach, Regional Director of Education for the CLC, will operate two one-week summer schools for trade unionists and a week-end school for officers of labour councils.
 Sept. 24-29. CREATIVE COMMUNITY CRAFTS COURSE: Six days of weaving, rug making, ceramics and teaching skills for community craft club leaders. Community leaders will meet with highly skilled craft teachers to increase skills and appreciation so that the community leaders can return to their communities to improve community craft activities. Leadership for the course will be Miss M.E. Muff, Weaving Instructor, Community Programmes Branch. Negotiations are under way for the services of Miss Tess Kittack, outstanding Ontario ceramitist and Mrs. M. Rowan, Director of the Rittirmere Rugmaking Studio. Instructors are to be appointed for Teaching Methods and Adult Education.

 Oct. 6-8. FOLK & SQUARE DANCE WORKSHOP: The Lakehead and District Folk and Square Dance Association will sponsor a weekend course for square dance callers and community square dance instructors.
 Oct. 20-22. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SEMINAR: The Seminar is designed for Chamber officers, secretaries, committee chairmen and members who are anxious to examine methods for developing good leadership and good organization in their Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade. Leadership will be provided by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and the Ontario Chamber of Commerce.
 Oct. 23-25. WRITING COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS: Norman L. Mathews, QC, will lead a seminar for industrial people responsible for administering collective agreements. Part of the seminar will be devoted to preparation for arbitration. Mr. Mathews will work with a skilled industrial relations director to be named.
 Nov. 3-5. AUDIO-VISUAL WORKSHOP: The Northwestern Ontario Film Federation, the National Film Board will sponsor a week-end course on the use of 16mm films, filmstrips and other audio-visual teaching tools. The Audio-Visual course is open to community leaders, teachers, industrial trainers, trade union instructors or anyone else teaching people.
 Anyone interested in the above courses may obtain further information from the Recreation office.
