ACCIDENTS CAN BE EXCITING - Cont'd from last issue

You can sit around the house while recuperating and catch up on all the daytime TV shows.

You can solicit sympathy you'd never get otherwise, maybe even from the kids and spouse.

Your physical system will be injected with all sorts of drugs and stimulants.

The wife might get to go to work, the older kids drop out of school, and so enrich their experiences.

The doctor may have to put you on a regimen to cure some of your bad habits.

You might have to learn a new trade to replace the old one you can't continue and didn't like anyway.

So live modern. Have an accident. Experience can be a good teacher -- if you live through it.

YOUTH CONFERENCE HELD AT QUETICO

Youth leaders from Northwestern Ontario concluded three days of thought-provoking discussion at the Quetico Conference and Training Centre last weekend. A significant subject under discussion during the Youth Counsellors Course was "What is Teen Town doing?" The question was put forth by Dr. M. F. Grapko of the Institute of Child Study, University of Toronto, who lectured and sparked the discussion periods during the three-day course.

It is gratifying to sit in on these discussions and learn that to these men and women teenagers and their problems and teen
