in approximately two weeks, but in the meantime business is being conducted as usual, with the exception of body work which will no longer be handled.

The plans include provision for a restaurant and the main lobby will be the site of a tourists information bureau. Rooms will be equipped with remote control radio and wiring for T.V. reception will be installed.

ART CLUB TO HOLD EXHIBITION OCTOBER 28th

The Terrace Bay Art Club will hold their annual exhibition this Saturday in the High School Auditorium. Featured for the first time will be a prize donated by T.Eaton Co. for the best painting submitted by a Terrace Bay Art Club member. The painting will be chosen by viewers' vote. Be sure to vote for the painting of your choice.

An art film will be shown at 4 in the afternoon and at 9 in the evening. The film will last approximately half an hour and is called "Canadian Landscape". It deals with A.Y. Jackson's approach to painting the Canadian Scene. School children are welcome to attend the afternoon showing free of charge.

Following the film in the afternoon the draw for the hamper of groceries will take place. At 9.30 P.M. the door prize will be drawn. It is an original painting depicting a local autumn scene. A ticket to the exhibition entitles you to a chance on this draw. You need not be present to win. Tickets may be purchased from any art club member. Proceeds will be used for art instruction.

TRICHILO - RUSO NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Before an altar adorned with pink gladioli in Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church at 10 A.M Saturday, October 21st, Miss Maria Trichilo was united in marriage with Victore Ruso, Toronto, son of Mr. & Mrs. Dominic Ruso. Rev. J.M. Cano officiated. Matron of Honor was Mrs. Anna Ruso, sister-in-law of the groom. Bridesmaids were her sister Esther, and cousins, the Misses Rosa and Teresa Speziale. Her sister Josephine was flower girl and Josephine's twin brother was ring bearer.

Groomsmen were Jim Ruso, Cosimo Costa, Cosimo Diano and Joe Figliomeni. Ushering the guests to pews adorned with silver bows were Dominic Costa and Jim Speziale. Organist was Mrs. G. Eusebi.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a gown of nylon sheer with lace bodice sabrina neckline, lily pointed sleeves and bell skirt. An illusion hip length veil was held by a crystal crown. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and pink carnations.

The Matron of honour was gowned in spark green chiffon with silver tiara and slippers. The bridesmaids were dressed alike in pale yellow organza and the flower girl was attired in deep myrtle nylon.

For the dinner and reception that followed in the town hall the mother of the bride received in a blue lace ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

For going away, the bride chose a beige camel hair walking suit with magenta accessories. The newly-weds will reside in Toronto. Guests from out of town were Mr. & Mrs. Joe Ruso, Mr. & Mrs. Jim Ruso and Frank Ruso of Toronto.
