TERRACE BAY ART CLUB HOLDS EXHIBITION

The Terrace Bay Art Club presented their annual exhibition on October 28th at the High School Auditorium. The Exhibition was comprised of 92 paintings, the work of the club, with the exception of 4 paintings shown by the Schreiber Art Club, and an oil painting and a copper etching loaned for display by Dr. and Mrs. McCausland. Also on display, were a number of excellent photographs, (portrait and landscape) by John Inshaw, of Schreiber.

The Exhibition Tea was under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Wyn McKechnie. The tea table was most attractively laid with gleaming silver on snowy damask, the glowing colours of the fruit centre piece, flanked by white tapers, providing a dramatic touch of colour. Tables for four were placed so that the viewer might have tea while contemplating the show. The tables each had a floral centre piece arranged by Mrs. M. Middaugh.

The pourers were as follows: Mrs. M. McCausland, Mrs. A. Hartman, Mrs. R. Lee, Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. J. Ferrier, Mrs. A. Sinkins, Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs. A. Chadney. The servitors were Miss Margot Anderson, and Miss Alice Jean McKechnie, assisted in the kitchen by members of the club.

A demonstration of palette knife painting was given by Mrs. S. Gaulin. The picture was first drawn on the canvas with a brush, and then a complete tonal underpainting made. The scene was a rock cut on the highway near Walker's Lake. The knife painting was worked over this underpainting so that the viewer might "see" the picture while it was being completed. The demonstration drew many interested comments, as well as questions concerning the technique.

At 4 P.M. and 8.30 P.M. a film called "Canadian Landscape" was shown, featuring the artist A.Y. Jackson, one of the now famous Group of Seven. The film showed him at work in his Toronto Studio, and on field trips. The film was shown separately, so that those in the auditorium not wishing to see the film, might continue to enjoy the exhibition without interruption. Paul Heenan was projectionist.

Following the evening showing of the film, Mr. R. Shirriff, Mill Manager, drew the winning ticket for the hamper of groceries, which went to Mr. D. McFadyen. The door prize, an oil painting by Mrs. S. Gaulin, depicting a local scene, was won by Aurel Gauthier of Schreiber. Mr. L. Crandlemere, Area Hydro Superintendent, drew the winning ticket.

The T. Eaton award, a Parker pen and pencil set, was presented for the first time this year. This award was given to the artist whose picture received the most viewer votes. Mrs. H. Hall presented the award to Mrs. Mary Middaugh, whose painting "Indian Summer" received the most votes.

Prospective purchasers of the paintings displayed for sale were given a chance to make their selection and several sales were negotiated. Art Club members recommend that interested parties should pick several paintings to "try them out" individually to see how they compliment or contrast with the interior decor of the home. What better way to secure a lovely oil painting of a familiar scene than through the results produced by our own local talent?
