REMEMBRANCE DAY, SATURDAY NOVEMBER 11

Terrace Bay Branch 223 Royal Canadian Legion will hold a Remembrance Day Service Saturday, November 11. All veterans are requested to meet at the Recreation Centre at 10.30 A.M. to parade to the cenotaph. The Very Reverend Dean E.A. Gallagher will conduct the service and the Terrace Bay Band will be in attendance.

The annual Remembrance Day Dinner and Dance will be held in the Moose Hall on Saturday November 11th, at 6.30 P.M. sponsored by the Terrace Bay Legion.

Mr. George Harris, District Branch Commander will be guest speaker. All veterans and their ladies are invited to attend.

For tickets contact A. Theriault in the mill or E. Cruickshank at the Medical Centre. In the town contact G. Black at the Liquor Store or D. Evans-Smith at the Bank. The dance will be open to the public and music will be by the Moose Nighters.

CURLING CLUB NEWS

The roof contractor started the bonded roof of the new addition on Monday and now the remainder of the work is interior work, and there is still a lot of it to do in order to be in half decent shape for curling, which should start about November 20th.

The building committee have scheduled crews through to the 25th of November, as shown below. So, curlers, your help is needed for a final effort of volunteer labour to get the job finished. Come out on your crew night, or any night. If you need to know what crew you are on consult the bulletin board at the rink or mill.

CREW SCHEDULE

For the week of November 6th - Mon. Thorsteinson, Tues. Crockford, Wed. Brophy, Thurs. MacDonald, Fri. Bouchard, Sat. Crockford. November 13th - Mon. Thorsteinson, Tues. Crockford, Wed. Brophy, Thurs. MacDonald, Fri. Bouchard, Sat. MacDonald. November 20th - Mon. Thorsteinson, Tues. Crockford, Wed. Brophy, Thurs. MacDonald, Fri. Bouchard, Sat. Brophy.

Regular curling, it is hoped, will start on November 20th. It is planned to get in about four weeks of scheduled curling before Christmas and have a break in regular curling during the holiday season (Cont'd on Page 13)

"SPARKY SAYS" TERRACE BAY FIRE DEPT."

Do You REMEMBER POOR PERCY who DIDN'T HAVE A CLUE WHEN IT CAME TO FIRE PREVENTION ?? IN THE COMING WEEKS WE OF THE TERRACE BAY FIRE DEPT. HOPE WE WILL BE ABLE TO SHOW HOW PERCY FOUND OUT, HOW TO PREVENT FIRES AND HELP EVERYONE TO DO THE SAME TILL FIRE PREVENTION NEXT YEAR
