NEWBITT GROCERY CLOSES

The J.C. Nesbitt Grocery Store which has been in operation since 1937 closed its doors for ever last month. Mr. Nesbitt, "Charlie" as everyone knows him, first started his career as a delivery boy for the late A.J. Message and later went to work for the late James Hastings who operated a grocery shop on Manitoba Street and who taught Mr. Nesbitt the art of butchering.

For two years Mr. Nesbitt worked in Toronto as a butcher and also with a motor company, returning to continue in the Hastings Store until the opening of his own business opposite the Post Office on Scotia Street.

Closing the store does not mean that he has retired. On the contrary, he runs the Nesbitt Garage on Highway 17 where he has been able to put more of his time and energy since ending his grocery career.

Mr. Nesbitt is an active member of the newly organized Schreiber District Chamber of Commerce, having been interested in the work since the days of the former Chamber of Commerce.
